US Lodging and REITs

Survey Says: Investors Lean Bullish on REITs in 3Q26

CITI'S TAKE

Our recent investor survey, conducted over the last week, highlights that investors lean bullish in their REIT investment outlook despite the recent pullback. Year-to-date, REITs are up +5% on a total return basis and are underperforming the broad market (S&P +12%). We are constructive on REITs given solid earnings growth, improving KPIs, reasonable valuations, and a supportive supply backdrop. That said, higher and volatile interest rates, macroeconomic uncertainty, and AI disruption concerns (LINK) continue to have an impact and create dispersion within REITs, so stock selection remains paramount, and we highlight our preferred sectors and stocks in our model portfolio.

Sector Picks & Pans — Healthcare, Data Centers, and Apartments were the top sectors expected to outperform over the next 12 months. Conversely, Lodging, Self-Storage, and Net Lease were the top sectors expected to underperform. Investors increased their outperformance votes the most for Shopping Centers, and their votes the most for Data Centers, vs. our last survey 3 months ago.

Stock Picks & Pans and M&A Targets — From a stock perspective, the top stocks expected to outperform over the next 12 months garnered ~50% of the write-in votes. Among these top stocks were AHR, COLD, and EQIX. Conversely, the stocks expected to underperform over the next 12 months include PEB and COLD. In terms of M&A, the top targets include CUBE, CPT, and UE.

Chart Book — See here for our chartbook highlighting the latest sector trends, fundamentals, and market insights.

We present a full discussion, charts, and analysis of survey results herein. We greatly appreciate everyone taking the time to respond to our survey.

Sector	Position	Model Portfolio Weight	Index Weight	OW/LW	Key O/Ws / Positions	Key U/Ws / No Positions	Commentary
Healthcare	O/W	23.7	19.4	425			We are overweight the healthcare REIT sector given its resiliency during economic downturns and the needs-based nature of their product offerings. Within the sector, we prefer senior housing and skilled nursing over outpatient medical and life science.
Diversified Healthcare	O/W	23.7	16.9	683	AHR, CHI, VIR, WELL	SBFA	Senior housing should benefit from strong top line growth driven by occupancy and pricing power. The labor environment has stabilized, which should support NOI margin expansion. The outlook for skilled nursing continues to improve and we expect occupancy and rent coverage to increase further as labor has stabilized and operators continue to effectively control costs.
Healthcare Office	U/W	0.0	2.6	(258)		ARE, DOC, HR	Outpatient medical demand remains steady, and while fundamentals remain solid, this is not translated into outsized earnings growth. Although we believe in the life science industry longer-term, we expect that near-to-medium term supply headwinds will continue to weigh on fundamentals.
Industrial	O/W	15.0	11.3	368	EQP, FR	REXR, STAG, TRNO	We favor industrial given the expected re-acceleration in net absorption and stabilization/improvement in market rent growth during 2025/2026 along with slowing development starts following a period of heightened deliveries in 2024, which should all help support premium cash SNOI growth relative to the broader REIT space. We thematically favor those industrial REITs that are more exposed to near-shoring/on-shoring trends.
Data Centers	O/W	14.1	10.9	321	DLP*, EQIX*	BXDC*	We are positive on data centers as the group continues to benefit from a favorable demand environment with respect to volume and pricing from Core cloud and expanding GenAI, along with various supply limitations.
Residential	O/W	16.0	13.3	271			Needs based real estate with an attractive rent vs. buy consideration. Increasing construction starts, potentially slowing job growth, and higher turnover are risks.
Apartments	O/W	10.2	8.7	151	OPT, ESS, MAA	IRT, UDR, VWRK	We believe rent growth accelerates in 2026 with lower deliveries, but a weaker job market remains a risk.
Single Family	O/W	3.4	2.3	109	INVH, AMH		Solid operating results driven by lower turnover and unaffordable housing market, offset by difficult comps, increased supply pressure and potential regulatory risks.
Manufactured Homes	O/W	2.3	2.2	10	SUI	ELS	Solid organic growth and select accretive external opportunities balanced by company specific risks.
Towers	O/W	1.0	0.0	105	AMT*, CCI*, SBAC*		Overweight as the group should return to more normalized organic revenue growth rates in future years, while we view valuation as attractive in a flat- to down-rate environment. Improving domestic leasing activity should continue to be a positive catalyst.
CRE Services	O/W	0.4	0.0	39	CBRE, CNK	JLL	We believe the industry should benefit from long term secular demand tailwinds including continued outsourcing of commercial real estate services needs. Transaction activity and leasing have started to pick back up.
Timber	O/W	0.2	0.0	22	WY*	RYN*	We are positive on lumber producer WY given leverage to accelerating 1-family construction and resilient R&D demand. US Timberland assets are further positioned favorably given growing carbon optionality, Canadian log & lumber supply restrictions, lumber capacity adds, and stabilizing sawlog prices in the South & Pac NW.
Lodging	U/W	3.4	3.5	(7)	HST, H, RHP	DRH, HLT, MAR, PEB, PK, SHO	Select names reflect attractive valuation (HST, H), improving visibility (RHP), strong balance sheet (HST), and strong net rooms growth (H).
Cold Storage	U/W	0.4	0.6	(24)	LINE	COLD	We remain underweight cold storage due to a weak demand environment. On a relative basis, we prefer LINE over COLD given relative valuation gap.
Self Storage	U/W	7.1	7.4	(25)	CUBE, PSA	EXR	Sector is seeing improving KPIs and fundamentals, but we are still neutral on storage as we expect the recovery to be gradual amid a slower housing market.
Outdoor Advertising	U/W	0.8	1.5	(67)	OUT*	LAMR*	Should benefit from higher pricing, while fixed cost nature of site leases make both companies insulated (on a relative basis) from inflation induced cost pressures.
Office	U/W	1.8	3.6	(184)	KRC, SLG	BDN, BXP, CDP, DEA, DEI, ESRT, HIW, HPP, MNO	While overall office fundamentals remain challenged, high quality buildings and certain submarkets are still seeing tenant demand. We prefer SLG given the relative strength of NYC and KRC given office leasing momentum in San Francisco.
Retail	U/W	8.7	11.2	(249)	AKR, BRX, CLFB, MAC, SKT	FRIT, KIM, KRG, REG, SPG	AFFO growth is poised to accelerate y/y in 2026, but the group overall has been impacted by tenant credit issues and fluid sentiment. We maintain a barbell approach with exposure to some higher multiple smaller cap companies that can deliver premium growth through acquisitions and lease-up (AKR, CLFB) and some lower multiple strips (BRX, SKT) that offer differentiated portfolios. We are also overweight MAC in the mall space.
Diversified/Specialty	U/W	0.7	3.7	(296)	MFP		Only coverage is MFP. We are constructive based on large covered dividend and attractive valuation.
Net Lease	U/W	6.8	11.9	(507)			Select exposure across net lease but underweight overall given concentration on smaller names with advantageous cost of capital.
Gaming	O/W	3.8	3.2	54	GLPI, VICI		Positive on gaming REITs given well-capitalized tenant base, competitive cost of capital, and external growth opportunities.
Diversified Net Lease	U/W	0.0	1.5	(148)		WFC	While WFC's OPI linked leases are a positive, prefer smaller names which can move the needle more easily through external growth.
Retail Net Lease	U/W	3.0	7.1	(413)	ADC, EPRIT	EPR, NNIN, NTST, O	Prefer stocks with attractive equity cost of capital and smaller asset base so external growth can move the needle more easily.

Do You Have a Strong Conviction on the Sector?

In order to dive deeper into the rankings, and to see which sectors had higher conviction on best or worst performing and which were more bifurcated, we looked into each sector's total amount of votes, whether in the best performing or worst performing, to determine the sectors that investors had the strongest opinions on. We then split each into which were ranked within the top 3 best performers, and which were ranked within the top 3 worst performers to assess sentiment; see Figure 27 below.

The results show the highest level of conviction for Healthcare, Data Centers, and Apartments with ~82%, 77%, and ~59% of respondents, respectively, including one of these in either their top three best or worst performing sectors. Self-Storage Net Lease follow with over half of respondents placing the sector in the top or bottom 3.

As shown below, sentiment is mostly negative (~80%+) for Net Lease, Lodging, Office, and Cold Storage while it is mostly positive (~70%+) for Healthcare, Data Centers, Apartments, and Industrial. While sentiment for SFRs is positive, there is little conviction, with ~32% of respondents including the sector in either their top three best or worst performing sectors. Healthcare had the highest conviction level with 82% in top or bottom 3, with 72% being positive.

Figure 27 highlights the distribution of responses as well as the total percentage of votes for both the top and bottom three.

7) Which REITs will be the next M&A targets?

CUBE, CPT, UE

Below we show investors' M&A expectations by sector. Investors expect Apartment REITs (~23%) to be the top M&A target, but there is a wide distribution of survey results (25 unique tickers were mentioned). We include Citi's Potential M&A List (Figure 30) below and wrote about our broad M&A thoughts here.

Analysts' compensation is determined by Citi Research management and Citigroup's senior management and is based upon activities and services intended to benefit the investor clients of Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and its affiliates (the "Firm"). Compensation is not linked to specific transactions or recommendations. Like all Firm employees, analysts receive compensation that is impacted by overall Firm profitability which includes investment banking, sales and trading, and principal trading revenues. One factor in equity research analyst compensation is arranging corporate access events between institutional clients and the management teams of covered companies. Typically, company management is more likely to participate when the analyst has a positive view of the company.

For financial instruments recommended in the Product in which the Firm is not a market maker, the Firm is a liquidity provider in such financial instruments (and any underlying instruments) and may act as principal in connection with transactions in such instruments. The Firm is a regular issuer of traded financial instruments linked to securities that may have been recommended in the Product. The Firm regularly trades in the securities of the issuer(s) discussed in the Product. The Firm may engage in securities transactions in a manner inconsistent with the Product and, with respect to securities covered by the Product, will buy or sell from customers on a principal basis.

Guide to Citi Research Fundamental Research Investment Ratings:

Citi Research stock recommendations include an investment rating and an optional risk rating to highlight high risk stocks.

Risk rating takes into account both price volatility and fundamental criteria. Stocks will either have no risk rating or a High risk rating assigned.

Investment Ratings: Citi Research investment ratings are Buy, Neutral and Sell. Our ratings are a function of analyst expectations of expected total return ("ETR") and risk. ETR is the sum of the forecast price appreciation (or depreciation) plus the dividend yield for a stock within the next 12 months. The target price is based on a 12 month time horizon. The Investment rating definitions are: Buy (1) ETR of 15% or more or 25% or more for High risk stocks; and Sell (3) for negative ETR. Any covered stock not assigned a Buy or a Sell is a Neutral (2). For stocks rated Neutral (2), if an analyst believes that there are insufficient valuation drivers and/or investment catalysts to derive a positive or negative investment view, they may elect with the approval of Citi Research management not to assign a target price and, thus, not derive an ETR. Citi Research may suspend its rating and target price and assign "Rating Suspended" status for regulatory and/or internal policy reasons. Citi Research may also suspend its rating and target price and assign "Under Review" status for other exceptional circumstances (e.g. lack of information critical to the analyst's thesis, trading suspension) affecting the company and/or trading in the company's securities. In both such situations, the rating and target price will show as "—" and "—" respectively in the rating history price chart. Prior to 11 April 2022 Citi Research assigned "Under Review" status to both situations and prior to 11 Nov 2020 only in exceptional circumstances. As soon as practically possible, the analyst will publish a note re-establishing a rating and investment thesis. Investment ratings are determined by the ranges described above at the time of initiation of coverage, a change in investment and/or risk rating, or a change in target price (subject to limited management discretion). At times, the expected total returns may fall outside of these ranges because of market price movements and/or other short-term volatility or trading patterns. Such interim deviations will be permitted but will become subject to review by Research Management. Your decision to buy or sell a security should be based upon your personal investment objectives and should be made only after evaluating the stock's expected performance and risk.

Catalyst Watch/Short Term Views ("STV") Ratings Disclosure:

Catalyst Watch and STV Upside/Downside calls: Citi Research may also include a Catalyst Watch or STV Upside or Downside call to indicate the analyst expects the share price to rise (fall) in absolute terms over a specified period of 30 or 90 days in reaction to one or more specific near-term catalysts or events impacting the company or the market. A Catalyst Watch will be published when Analyst confidence is high that an impact to share price will occur; it will be a STV when confidence level is moderate. A Catalyst Watch or STV Upside/Downside call will automatically expire at the end of the specified 30/90 day period. The Catalyst Watch will also be automatically removed if share price performance (calculated at market close) exceeds 15% against the direction of the call (unless over-ridden by the analyst). The analyst may also remove a Catalyst Watch or STV call prior to the end of the specified period in a published research note. A Catalyst Watch/STV Upside or Downside call may be different from and does not affect a stock's fundamental equity rating, which reflects a longer-term total absolute return expectation. For purposes of FINRA ratings-distribution-disclosure rules, a Catalyst Watch/STV Upside call corresponds to a buy recommendation and a Catalyst Watch/STV Downside call corresponds to a sell recommendation. Any stock not assigned to a Catalyst Watch Upside, Catalyst Watch Downside, STV Upside, or STV Downside call is considered Catalyst Watch/STV No View. For purposes of FINRA ratings distribution-disclosure rules, we correspond Catalyst Watch/STV No View to Hold in our ratings distribution table for our Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside rating system. However, we reiterate that we do not consider No View to be a recommendation. For all Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside calls, risk exists that the catalyst(s) and associated share-price movement will not materialize as expected.

Within Israel, this communication is not intended for retail clients and Citi will not make such products or transactions available to retail clients or to non-Eligible Clients. The presenter is not licensed as investment advisor or investment marketer by the Israeli Securities Authority ("ISA") and this communication does not constitute investment or marketing advice. The information contained herein may relate to matters that are not regulated by the ISA. Citi Research broadly and simultaneously disseminates its research content to the Firm's institutional and retail clients via the Firm's proprietary electronic distribution platforms (e.g., Citi Velocity and various Global Wealth platforms). As a convenience, certain, but not all, research content may be distributed through third party aggregators. Clients may receive published research reports by email, on a discretionary basis, and only after such research content has been broadly disseminated.

Certain research is made available only to institutional investors to satisfy regulatory requirements. The level and types of services provided by Citi Research analysts to clients may vary depending on various factors such as the client's individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communications from analysts, the client's risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g. market-wide, sector specific, long term, short-term etc.), the size and scope of the overall client relationship with the Firm and legal and regulatory constraints.

Pursuant to Comissão de Valores Mobiliários Resolução 20 and ASIC Regulatory Guide 264, Citi is required to disclose whether a Citi related company or business has a commercial relationship with the subject company. Considering that Citi operates multiple businesses in more than 100 countries around the world, it is likely that Citi has a commercial relationship with the subject company.

Securities recommended, offered, or sold by the Firm: (i) are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; (ii) are not deposits or other obligations of any insured depository institution (including Citibank); and (iii) are subject to investment risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested. The Product is for informational purposes only and is not intended as an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of a security. Any decision to purchase securities mentioned in the Product must take into account existing public information on such security or any registered prospectus. Although information has been obtained from and is based upon sources that the Firm believes to be reliable, we do not guarantee its accuracy and it may be incomplete and condensed. Note, however, that the Firm has taken all reasonable steps to determine the accuracy and completeness of the disclosures made in the Important Disclosures section of the Product. The Firm's research department has received assistance from the subject company(ies) referred to in this Product including, but not limited to, discussions with management of the subject company(ies). Firm policy prohibits research analysts from sending draft research to subject companies. However, it should be presumed that the author of the Product has had discussions with the subject company to ensure factual accuracy prior to publication. Statements and views concerning ESG (environmental, social, governance) factors are typically based upon public statements made by the affected company or other public news, which the author may not have independently verified. ESG factors are one consideration that investors may choose to examine when making investment decisions. All opinions, projections and estimates constitute the judgment of the author as of the date of the Product and these, plus any other information contained in the Product, are subject to change without notice. Prices and availability of financial instruments also are subject to change without notice. Notwithstanding other departments within the Firm advising the companies discussed in this Product, information obtained in such role is not used in the preparation of the Product. Although Citi Research does not set a predetermined frequency for publication, if the Product is a fundamental equity or credit research report, it is the intention of Citi Research to provide research coverage of the covered issuers, including in response to news affecting the issuer. For non-fundamental research reports, Citi Research may not provide regular updates to the views, recommendations and facts included in the reports. Notwithstanding that Citi Research maintains coverage on, makes recommendations concerning or discusses issuers, Citi Research may be periodically restricted from referencing certain issuers due to legal or policy reasons. Where a component of a published trade idea is subject to a restriction, the trade idea will be removed from any list of open trade ideas included in the Product. Upon the lifting of the restriction, the trade idea will either be re-instated in the open trade ideas list if the analyst continues to support it or it will be officially closed. Citi Research may provide different research products and services to different classes of customers (for example, based upon long-term or short-term investment horizons) that may lead to differing conclusions or recommendations that could impact the price of a security contrary to the recommendations in the alternative research product, provided that each is consistent with the rating system for each respective product.

Investing in non-U.S. securities, including ADRs, may entail certain risks. The securities of non-U.S. issuers may not be registered with, nor be subject to the reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. There may be limited information available on foreign securities. Foreign companies are generally not subject to uniform audit and reporting standards, practices and requirements comparable to those in the U.S. Securities of some foreign companies may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable U.S. companies. In addition, exchange rate movements may have an adverse effect on the value of an investment in a foreign stock and its corresponding dividend payment for U.S. investors. Net dividends to ADR investors are estimated, using withholding tax rates conventions, deemed accurate, but investors are urged to consult their tax advisor for exact dividend computations. Investors who have received the Product from the Firm may be prohibited in certain states or other jurisdictions from purchasing securities mentioned in the Product from the Firm.
