2Q in line excluding one-off factors; full-year operating profit guidance revised up on an underlying basis

2Q12/26 operating profits of ¥23.9 bn, announced after the August 14 close, slightly missed our estimate of ¥25.0 bn and the Bloomberg consensus of just over ¥27 bn but finished in line excluding operational losses (estimated at c.¥2 bn, already resolved) incurred at the US Jeannette plant, a key base for the energy business. While Ebara maintained full-year operating profit guidance at ¥125 bn, considering a ¥4 bn settlement loss associated with the revision of the retirement benefit plan was newly incorporated, this represents an upward revision on an underlying basis. Closely watched orders in the precision machinery segment came to ¥116.2 bn in 2Q (vs. our estimate of ¥80.0 bn and Bloomberg consensus of just under ¥100 bn), and full-year guidance was revised up to ¥550 bn from ¥405 bn (vs. our estimate of ¥488.1 bn and Bloomberg consensus of just over ¥430 bn), substantially above our assumptions and market expectations. As sales for most of these orders will likely be booked in FY12/27, we see this as a major upward shift in the earnings outlook for FY12/27 onward.

Key points from the results briefing

(1) Precision machinery: Orders remain strong across the board for both systems and components. For systems, lead times are stretching to 6-12 months, prompting pull-forward orders to secure slots. While most of these orders are expected to be booked as sales in FY12/27, the company expects the favorable business environment to continue into FY12/27. We note that OPM guidance was slightly revised down to 18.1% from 18.4%, as the proportion of components within total sales is expected to increase compared to initial guidance.

(2) Energy: FY12/26 operating profit guidance was revised down to ¥18 bn from ¥21 bn. Of the revision, -¥2.0 bn is from operational losses (with estimated resolution within 1H) amid ongoing automation investment at the US Jeannette plant and the remaining -¥1.0 bn is from a reduced likelihood of unplanned service & support (S&S) revenues amid protracted tensions in the Middle East. However, the order environment is turning favorable, with product orders expanding with improved profitability and the pace of S&S orders also exceeding initial expectations.

(3) Production capacity: While precision machinery sales are progressing somewhat ahead of medium-term plan assumptions, the completion of the new production building at the Kumamoto plant has secured near-term upward flexibility. Consequently, management expects to be able to meet robust demand with its existing capacity over the next three years. That said, Ebara continues to examine the need for further investment in anticipation of subsequent market expansion.

Raising earnings outlook for FY12/27 onward; reiterate Buy on semiconductor-driven profit growth

Based on 2Q results, we lower our FY12/26 operating profit estimate by 4% to factor in one-off items such as the operational losses in the energy business and the settlement loss associated with the revised retirement benefit plan. However, we raise our FY12/27-12/28 estimates by 3%/4% to reflect stronger-than-expected orders in the precision machinery and energy businesses. We maintain our 12-month target price of ¥7,900 (making a minor revision to the cost of equity for the peer group to 4.2% from 4.0%). We reiterate our Buy rating, as we believe confirmation of robust precision machinery orders further increases the likelihood of our semiconductor-driven profit growth story. We continue to see considerable room for multiple expansion as awareness of the stock extends across a broader investor base.

Investment Thesis - Ebara

Ebara is a global manufacturer of environmental and industrial machinery products including semiconductor production equipment (SPE) and industrial pumps. With fluid control and rotating machinery technologies as its core technologies, Ebara has expanded its business into a wide range of fields, branching out from its original pump business. The Precision Machinery segment, which mainly targets the semiconductor field, now accounts for 45-50% of company-wide operating profits. CMP equipment, one of Ebara's core products, handles a key process not only in semiconductor miniaturization but also in multiple expected technological advancements. Given that full-capacity operations are anticipated for manufacturing equipment such as dry vacuum pumps and CMP equipment, we believe growth at Ebara will likely outpace the WFE market, the SPE market benchmark. Our FY12/27E operating profit estimate sits nearly 20% above the Bloomberg consensus likely due to our more bullish earnings estimates for CMP systems.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Ebara

Valuation methodology: Our 12-month target price of ¥7,900 is based on the correlation between P/B and FY12/27E ROE (implies FY12/27E P/E of 25X, P/B of 5.6X).

Key downside risks: Semiconductor capex enters a downcycle, increasing competitiveness of Chinese CMP system makers, slow adoption of new technology in semiconductor devices, decline in crude oil/LNG prices, and oil refining/petrochemical margins.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
