

Anji Micro (688019.SS): Advanced packaging CMP ramp-up; Broader materials platform to support growth

We remain positive on Anji Micro's growth outlook, supported by (1) rising semiconductor capacity spending from memory and advanced logic customers in China, (2) its CMP slurry mix upgrade toward advanced nodes and advanced packaging, and (3) continued product expansion into functional wet chemicals, etchants and electroplating solutions. We expect Anji Micro's revenues to grow by 10% / 13% QoQ to Rmb885mn / Rmb1,002mn in 3Q26E / 4Q26E. As highlighted in our CHIPS IV report (link), we estimate China WFE spending to grow by 13% / 20% / 15% YoY in 2026E-28E to US$61bn by 2028E, supporting demand for semiconductor materials. We believe Anji Micro's comprehensive coverage of CMP slurry and wet chemicals, together with its expansion into new materials and applications, should support its product mix upgrade and longer-term growth. Maintain Buy.

Advanced packaging CMP ramp-up: Anji Micro continues to expand its CMP slurry coverage into TSV, TGV, hybrid bonding and polymer applications for advanced packaging. The company noted that related products are seeing continued sales ramp-up at domestic customers, while overseas customer qualification is progressing. We believe the increasing adoption of TSV, TGV and hybrid bonding in AI-related advanced packaging creates demand for dedicated planarization solutions, allowing Anji Micro to extend its core CMP capabilities into additional process steps and applications, along with customers expansion.

New materials entering commercialization: Functional wet chemicals have become a meaningful second growth driver, with 1H26 revenue growing 51% YoY and accounting for 20% of total revenue, supported by the ramp-up of advanced-node cleaning solutions. Meanwhile, selected etchants have entered small-volume production, while Damascene and TSV electroplating solutions have entered mass production and sales. We believe the expansion beyond CMP slurry broadens Anji Micro's product coverage and growth opportunities, although etchants and electroplating remain at an early stage of commercialization.

Earnings revision: We reduce our net income by 7% / 13% / 8% in 2026-28E mainly on lower revenues, lower GM, and higher R&D. The change reflects a gradual ramp-up of new products, and a gradual product mix upgrade, which better fit the momentum in 1H26. Nevertheless, we continue to expect revenues to increase in 2H26, with 3Q26 / 4Q26 revenues to grow at 10% / 13% QoQ, leading 2026E revenues to grow at 36% YoY (vs. 32% YoY in 2025), followed by ~30% YoY in 2027 / 28E, reflecting our positive view on China Semis Capex expansion.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
