Post market close on Aug 25, 2026, Moons' Electric announced its 2Q26 results with revenue/gross profit/EBIT/net income at Rmb867mn/Rmb331mn/Rmb33mn/Rmb23mn (+21%/+38%/+131%/+18% yoy), -7%/-5%/-37%/-59% vs. GSe; GPM/OPM/NPM was 38%/4%/3% (+5pp/+2pp/+0pp yoy), +1pp/-2pp/-3pp vs. GSe. While GPM came in slightly above GSe, the OP/NP margin missed due to higher-than-expected SG&A expenses and FX losses.

Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C.

By application across motor & drive segment, IA/auto & autonomous driving/robotics/medical revenue growth were at +27%/+59%/+58%/+11% yoy in 1H26. Within industrial automation, growth was mainly driven by semiconductor equipment (+78% yoy) and 3C manufacturing equipment (+67% yoy), vs. PV equipment at +15% yoy. Robotics growth mainly benefited from the acceleration of humanoid robots, with volume supply capability across dexterous hands, upper-body joints and wheeled-chassis modules. The rest segments declined, with power & lighting control/equipment monitoring control/agency recorded -17%/-18%/-11% yoy in 1H26, mainly on intensified price competition and slower downstream capex.

Margin-wise, blended GPM improved by 2.7pp yoy to 37.7% in 1H26 (2Q26 at 38%, +5pp yoy) on a higher mix of high value-added products and scale effects. However, bottom line performance missed due to raw material cost inflation, SG&A expense increase and FX headwinds (15mn incremental FX loss in 1H26).

All in, we revise our 2026E-30E revenue by -6% to -3%, and our 2026-30E net profit by -25% to -10%, mainly to reflect the 2Q26 miss and a higher opex/FX drag. Accordingly, our 12-month TP is lowered to Rmb35.5 (from Rmb39.6), still based on 2030E P/E of 37x discounted back to 2027E at a CoE of 9.5%. Maintain Sell on stretched valuation.

Investment Thesis and PTMRInvestment Thesis - Moons' Electric

We are Sell-rated on Moons' Electric, a domestic leader in motor and drive solutions. We expect the company to become an important player in the humanoid robot coreless motor supply chain, supported by its leading position in coreless motor products and broader motion-control capabilities. However, we remain cautious on the magnitude and profitability of this opportunity, given 1) potential for lower-than-previously-expected coreless motor adoption in dexterous hands amid a still-evolving technology roadmap; 2) intensifying competition across the coreless motor supply chain; and 3) near-term margin pressure from higher R&D and marketing expenses, raw material inflation, and early-stage investment in new businesses with limited economies of scale. While Moons' Electric's 2025 topline was supported by solid growth across FA, auto, robot and 3D-printing end-markets, and key products such as servo systems, coreless motors and automation systems continued to grow strongly, profitability has remained under pressure. Management is focused on cost reduction, supply-chain optimization and stricter expense control, but we see limited margin upside in the near term. After factoring in the company's humanoid robot growth potential in humanoid robots and its main business (Motors and Drives), we maintain our Sell rating as near-term margin pressure and execution uncertainty keep the risk-reward less compelling relative to other opportunities in our coverage.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Moons' Electric

Valuation: Our 12-month target price of Rmb35.5 for Moons' Electric is based on an unchanged 2030E P/E of 37x, discounted back to 2027E at a CoE of 9.5%.

Upside risks: (1) faster-than-expected humanoid robots progress; (2) higher coreless motor adoption in dexhand or blended market share vs. our expectations; (3) stronger-than-expected product competitiveness and share gain progress in Motors & Drives.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.

Differing Levels of Service provided by Global Investment Research: The level and types of services provided to you by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research may vary as compared to that provided to internal and other external clients of GS, depending on various factors including your individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communication, your risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g., marketwide, sector specific, long term, short term), the size and scope of your overall client relationship with GS, and legal and regulatory constraints. As an example, certain clients may request to receive notifications when research on specific securities is published, and certain clients may request that specific data underlying analysts' fundamental analysis available on our internal client websites be delivered to them electronically through data feeds or otherwise. No change to an analyst's fundamental research views (e.g., ratings, price targets, or material changes to earnings estimates for equity securities), will be communicated to any client prior to inclusion of such information in a research report broadly disseminated through electronic publication to our internal client websites or through other means, as necessary, to all clients who are entitled to receive such reports.

All research reports are disseminated and available to all clients simultaneously through electronic publication to our internal client websites. Not all research content is redistributed to our clients or available to third-party aggregators, nor is Goldman Sachs responsible for the redistribution of our research by third party aggregators. For research, models or other data related to one or more securities, markets or asset classes (including related services) that may be available to you, please contact your GS representative or go to <https://research.gs.com>.

Disclosure information is also available at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html> or from Research Compliance, 200 West Street, New York, NY 10282.
