We update our Legrand estimates ahead of its CMD on 29th September to reflect our updated company-specific barometer as well as latest FX moves. We continue to see stronger growth in coming years than historical long-run average levels, supported by Legrand's high exposure to datacenters (now c.32% of group sales) where the company recently noted that execution has been solid with lead times unchanged. In line with our industry channel checks, we also expect Legrand to see an encouraging pipeline of opportunities and datacenter projects in Europe materialising into revenues in 2027/28. Overall, our adj EBIT estimates are 1%/4% ahead of Visible Alpha Consensus Data for 2026/27 as we see operating leverage and strong pricing partially offsetting cost inflation. That said, we highlight that we do not see Legrand's growth at levels as high as those of peers such as Schneider (Buy), given its higher residential exposure and continued sluggishness in our resi barometer data (Exhibit 7). On a long-term horizon, Legrand remains more exposed to datacenter white space (c.75% of DC sales) compared to peers such as Schneider/ABB/Siemens, which could drive lower growth if datacenter architectures increasingly move towards MV/HV and direct current, although we acknowledge that the company has been making forays into investing in those areas.

Legrand is hosting a Capital Markets Day in Singapore on 29th September. Our key expectations for the event include: 1) an update on its 2030 strategic roadmap including potential medium-term target upgrades towards OSG of 5-7% (vs 3-5% now), 2030 sales of €15-17bn (vs €15bn now) and margins of >21% (vs c.20% now), 2) a comprehensive overview of Legrand's next generation datacenter portfolio (both hybrid and full 800VDC architecture) as well as updated assumptions for the total DC addressable market and €/MW content for Legrand; and 3) an update on expectations for the European construction market and Legrand's positioning within the segment.

We remain Neutral rated with an unchanged 12-month target price of €156. Our target price remains based on our 12-month rolling sector-relative EV/IC to ROIC/WACC with 6m27/6m28 estimates. Legrand trades broadly in line with our sector on PEG ratio and FCF yield, slightly below on dividend yield and above the sector line on EV/IC to ROIC/WACC.

Key risks to our view and price target: (1) Higher-for-longer-than-expected interest rates leading to more protracted construction softness/lower rates faster than expected leading to a stronger construction recovery; (2) Significant inventory restocking/destocking impacting organic growth; (3) Challenges in complementing organic growth via Legrand's established bolt-on M&A strategy / requiring value dilutive multiples to achieve historical levels of M&A or faster-than-expected M&A at more favourable multiples; (4) Datacenter implementation delays or much better underlying datacenter growth than expected; and (5) Technological shifts in datacenters particularly favouring/disadvantaging Legrand's portfolio.

Valuation and key risks

We remain Neutral rated with an unchanged 12-month target price of €156. Our target price remains based on our 12-month rolling sector-relative EV/IC to ROIC/WACC with 6m27/6m28 estimates.

Key risks to our view and price target: (1) Higher-for-longer-than-expected interest rates leading to more protracted construction softness/lower rates faster than expected leading to a stronger construction recovery; (2) Significant inventory restocking/destocking impacting organic growth; (3) Challenges in complementing organic growth via Legrand's established bolt-on M&A strategy / requiring value dilutive multiples to achieve historical levels of M&A or faster-than-expected M&A at more favourable multiples; (4) Datacenter implementation delays or much better underlying datacenter growth than expected; and (5) Technological shifts in datacenters particularly favouring/disadvantaging Legrand's portfolio.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock’s total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region’s Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts’ investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
