We preview Inovance 3Q26 results with revenue and net-profit forecasts of +18%/+20% yoy, underpinned by solid albeit moderating IA growth, with management guiding for c.20% yoy IA order growth in the quarter vs. 40% in 1H26. EV data points remain mixed to negative, but we expect Inovance Automotive's loss to stay contained. We cut 2026-30E EPS by 1-2% to reflect a weaker battery capex outlook with no growth already seen in Aug-Sept and lower our 2027E target P/E to 30x from 35x as China's IA cycle moderates, reducing our 12-month target price from Rmb89.2 to Rmb75.9. We stay Buy rated on Inovance, and we believe the key upside optionality lies in a faster ramp in embodied AI, accelerated digitalization revenue, and stronger global expansion, potentially aided by further market share gain due to supply chain tightness at international competitors.

For IA segment, Inovance previously disclosed July order growth of over 30% yoy and aggregate 3Q26 order growth of 20% yoy. We therefore approximate September order growth of 15-20% yoy, with a positive sequential trend and a slight recovery versus August. Overall, we view September order growth as consistent with normal seasonality. Lithium battery remained a relative drag, with flat yoy order growth in both August and September, reflecting a high base last year and weaker capex trends. Process industries, however, saw a modest sequential recovery in September. PIMM may have remained relatively weak, as Haitian disclosed a low single-digit yoy decline in September orders, both domestically and overseas. More resilient end-markets likely included advanced manufacturing, including semiconductors, smartphones and broader consumer electronics. 3Q26 IA revenue likely could deliver 20%+ yoy growth to drive firmwide revenue growth.

In EV component segment, third-party data points were mixed to negative, although we believe the net loss at Inovance Automotive should remain limited relative to the group profit. According to NE Times, Inovance Automotive's combined July-August shipments of controllers, motors and OBCs were down 24%/33%/up 4% yoy, respectively. Controller and motor market shares declined, while OBC market share increased. However, these data do not provide a comprehensive view of Inovance Automotive's product portfolio, as EV drive-system shipments were not disclosed. Cross-checking with end-customer data, its major customers remained relatively resilient in 3Q26. Based on their respective 2025 revenue contributions of 18%/18%/16%/8%/5% from Li Auto, GAC, Chery, Xiaomi and Geely, these customers' 3Q26 deliveries grew 7%/39%/94%/-6%/19% yoy, respectively, implying blended growth of c.20% yoy. Considering these industry data points and stabilizing raw-material prices, we expect the loss to be contained or largely at break even points.

On margins, copper, an important raw material for both IA motors and EV motors, saw relative price stabilization in 3Q26 with only mild inching up. Average delivered copper prices rose 6% qoq, while yoy growth was 44% in 3Q26 vs 40% in 2Q26. Given Inovance's IA product price increases year to date and its internal cost-mitigation measures, we expect sequentially stable GPM in 3Q26.

We revise down our 2026-30E EPS by 1-2% to reflect the battery exposure on a weaker capex outlook, and we lower our 2027E P/E-based target multiple to 30x from 35x to reflect a moderation in China's IA cycle. We expect 2027E IA industry growth to slow versus 2026E, driven by: 1) a deceleration in AI capex growth as the base rises, with potential impact on AI infrastructure end-markets such as PCB, optical module, liquid cooling etc; 2) headwind in batteries capex post strong growth since end-2024. Accordingly, we forecast Inovance's IA revenue growth to moderate to 13% yoy in 2027E, from 20% yoy in 2026E. Applying a lower 30x target 2027E P/E multiple (against 17% EPS CAGR) reduces our 12-month target price to Rmb75.9 from Rmb89.2. We maintain our Buy rating.

Given recent share price decline of 41% from the peak in May 2026, we believe the current share price has reflected the drag going forward (from Inovance Automotive as well as battery capex drag to IA). In 2027E, brighter spots will most likely still come from advanced manufacturing, such as consumer electronics, AI capex exposure and domestic substitution of semiconductor equipment, which would support a steady yet moderating growth for IA into 2027E.

We stay Buy rated and believe the following factors could potentially drive valuation rerating from here: 1) a faster ramp in embodied AI; 2) a faster progress in digitalization; 3) upside from global expansion that may be accelerated by potential supply chain tightness by other international suppliers.

- Embodied AI: Inovance will launch its first wheel-based embodied robot, InoBot W1, at CIIF on 12 October per company announcement. Subsequent disclosure on customer trials or commercialization would reinforce its leadership in embodied AI supply chain and further revenue potential.
- Further upside could come from faster global expansion and domestic substitution. In particular, persistent supply tightness and longer lead times from Japanese and other international suppliers could accelerate replacement in higher-end automation applications, while Inovance continues to penetrate in local customers as well as follow Chinese equipment customers overseas.
- Digitalization is also a potential longer term upside driver. At CIIF, Inovance will showcase its four-layer industrial architecture, integrating field execution, connectivity, cross-system collaboration and decision-making, with AI applied across the stack. This highlights the company's ambition to move from supplying single products to providing integrated equipment, production line and factory-level solutions, which could further enhance solution value and customer stickiness.

Investment thesis, valuation methodology and risks

Shenzhen Inovance is a domestic leader in industrial automation. We like the company's growth outlook given: 1) although its two key products, i.e., inverter/servo already reached 25%/33% or No.1/No.1 in China as of 2025, the company still has opportunities in overseas markets; 2) we expect the company to gain market share in small/large PLC, which will serve as a building block for it to extend into digitalization and transform into an IoT solution provider; 3) EV components continue to ramp up share on top of fast industry growth; and 4) digitalization business development with the potential to exceed our expectations. We view Inovance's major competitive moats that will underpin its resilience through cycles as: 1) industry leading R&D effectiveness with high success rates for new product lines; and, 2) a comprehensive product portfolio and end-market coverage that reinforce customers' switching costs. We view valuation as attractive given the shares are trading at around historical average multiples with a solid long-term growth and return profile; we are Buy rated.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Shenzhen Inovance Technology Co.

Valuation and risks: Our 12-month TP of Rmb75.9 is based on 30x 2027E P/E.

Downside risks: 1) Slower-than-expected industrial automation market share gains; 2) Weaker-than-expected margin trends; 3) EV component segment ramp-up coming slower than expected; 4) general manufacturing capex/automation demand slowing down.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
