FTSE China Index Series Review and Flow Implications (September 2026)

What Happened? FTSE Russell announced the results of its quarterly index review for the FTSE China Index Series after the market closed on September 2 (Wednesday). All changes will take effect after market close on September 18 (Friday).

Constituent Changes: For the FTSE China 50, Hua Hong Semi (H) (1347) and Montage Technology (H) (6809) will replace Kuaishou Technology (B) (1024), S.F. Holding (H) (6936). For the FTSE China A50, Shengyi Technology (A) (600183) and Adv. Micro-Fabri. Equip. (A) (688012) will replace Wanhua Chemical (A) (600309) and Muyuan Foods (A) (002714). Weight adjustments will be around 3.4% for China 50 and 3.3% for China A50. (Exhibit 3)

Index Implications: Following the rebalancing, FTSE China 50 index's forward 12-month P/E is expected to shift from 9.0x to 9.1x, trailing dividend yield will remain unchanged at 3.4%, and EPS growth (2026-27 CAGR) will increase from 10.0% to 10.7%, respectively. For China A50 index, the corresponding metrics would change from 11.7x to 12.1x (fP/E), 2.7% to 2.6% (D/Y), and 18.1% to 18.2% (EPS growth). (Exhibit 1)

Sector Implications: Tech Hardware & Semis (+US$450mn) is poised to see the largest passive inflows, while Banks (-US$550mn), Consumer Staples (-US$110mn), Chemicals (-US$110mn) may face the biggest outflows. These changes reflect rebalancing for existing and pending constituents in FTSE China 50/A50, combined with potential flows from FTSE GEIS. Overall, we estimate that the FTSE rebalancing could generate over US$1.9bn in gross two-way passive flows for China. (Exhibit 2)

Historical vs. Current Patterns: For the FTSE China 50, current additions have outperformed deletions amid elevated volatility; post-announcement performance has typically been volatile and mildly negative around/after the effective date (Exhibit 4). FTSE China A50 additions traded flat vs. deletions, with the strong gain seen three weeks before the announcement erased by a sharp drawdown. Historical trends suggest a post-announcement performance reversal, followed by a recovery around the effective date (Exhibit 5).

General disclosures

This research is for our clients only. Other than disclosures relating to Goldman Sachs, this research is based on current public information that we consider reliable, but we do not represent it is accurate or complete, and it should not be relied on as such. The information, opinions, estimates and forecasts contained herein are as of the date hereof and are subject to change without prior notification. We seek to update our research as appropriate, but various regulations may prevent us from doing so. Other than certain industry reports published on a periodic basis, the large majority of reports are published at irregular intervals as appropriate in the analyst's judgment.

Goldman Sachs conducts a global full-service, integrated investment banking, investment management, and brokerage business. We have investment banking and other business relationships with a substantial percentage of the companies covered by Global Investment Research. Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, the United States broker dealer, is a member of SIPC (<https://www.sipc.org>).

Our salespeople, traders, and other professionals may provide oral or written market commentary or trading strategies to our clients and principal trading desks that reflect opinions that are contrary to the opinions expressed in this research. Our asset management area, principal trading desks and investing businesses may make investment decisions that are inconsistent with the recommendations or views expressed in this research.

We and our affiliates, officers, directors, and employees will from time to time have long or short positions in, act as principal in, make a market or act as liquidity provider in, and buy or sell, any securities, derivatives, or other financial instruments referred to in this research (including any financial instruments issued by the companies referred to herein), unless otherwise prohibited by regulation or Goldman Sachs policy.

The views attributed to third party presenters at Goldman Sachs arranged conferences, including individuals from other parts of Goldman Sachs, do not necessarily reflect those of Global Investment Research and are not an official view of Goldman Sachs.

Any third party referenced herein, including any salespeople, traders and other professionals or members of their household, may have positions in the products mentioned that are inconsistent with the views expressed by analysts named in this report.

This research is focused on investment themes across markets, industries and sectors. It does not attempt to distinguish between the prospects or performance of, or provide analysis of, individual companies within any industry or sector we describe.

Any trading recommendation in this research relating to an equity or credit security or securities within an industry or sector is reflective of the investment theme being discussed and is not a recommendation of any such security in isolation.

This research is not an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security in any jurisdiction where such an offer or solicitation would be illegal. It does not constitute a personal recommendation or take into account the particular investment objectives, financial situations, or needs of individual clients. Clients should consider whether any advice or recommendation in this research is suitable for their particular circumstances and, if appropriate, seek professional advice, including tax advice. The price and value of investments referred to in this research and the income from them may fluctuate. Past performance is not a guide to future performance, future returns are not guaranteed, and a loss of original capital may occur. Fluctuations in exchange rates could have adverse effects on the value or price of, or income derived from, certain investments.

Certain transactions, including those involving futures, options, and other derivatives, give rise to substantial risk and are not suitable for all investors. Investors should review current options and futures disclosure documents which are available from Goldman Sachs sales representatives or at <https://www.theocc.com/about/publications/character-risks.jsp> and https://www.goldmansachs.com/disclosures/cftc_fcm_disclosures. Transaction costs may be significant in option strategies calling for multiple purchase and sales of options such as spreads. Supporting documentation will be supplied upon request.

Differing Levels of Service provided by Global Investment Research: The level and types of services provided to you by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research may vary as compared to that provided to internal and other external clients of GS, depending on various factors including your individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communication, your risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g., marketwide, sector specific, long term, short term), the size and scope of your overall client relationship with GS, and legal and regulatory constraints. As an example, certain clients may request to receive notifications when research on specific securities is published, and certain clients may request that specific data underlying analysts' fundamental analysis available on our internal client websites be delivered to them electronically through data feeds or otherwise. No change to an analyst's fundamental research views (e.g., ratings, price targets, or material changes to earnings estimates for equity securities), will be communicated to any client prior to inclusion of such information in a research report broadly disseminated through electronic publication to our internal client websites or through other means, as necessary, to all clients who are entitled to receive such reports.

All research reports are disseminated and available to all clients simultaneously through electronic publication to our internal client websites. Not all research content is redistributed to our clients or available to third-party aggregators, nor is Goldman Sachs responsible for the redistribution of our research by third party aggregators.
