

Quanta Services (PWR)

Management Meeting Takeaways: Continue to See Incremental Growth Opportunities in Electric and Data Centers; Buy

PWR 12m Price Target: $902.00 Price: $642.51 Upside: 40.4%

We attended an in-person lunch meeting with Quanta Services on September 30, 2026, including Earl C. “Duke” Austin, Jr. (Chief Executive Officer), Jayshree Desai (Chief Financial Officer), Kip Rupp (Vice President Investor Relations), and Sean Eastman (Director Investor Relations). We remain constructive on PWR as we see incremental growth opportunities beyond the guided 7–10% organic growth CAGR through 2030, bolstered by the company’s strong position within the transmission & distribution build-out and data center projects over the long-term. As PWR focuses on providing an integrated solution within the data center space, we see incremental growth from past M&A aiding in customer awards for large projects as PWR offers a vertically-integrated model. We anticipate growth in this market, as well as the addition of large transmission projects, driving out-year revenue for the company. In addition, we view the company’s pre-fabrication offerings and offsite manufacturing capabilities as a potential margin driver and increasing scope with customers. We reiterate our Buy rating and continue to see a compelling risk/reward.

Key Takeaways from Management Meeting

Point 1. Anticipate growth from data center projects over the long-term as PWR sees increasing scope

Management noted the continued focus on a programmatic approach to their work with hyperscalers for data center projects, much like the approach in their utility business. PWR sees the opportunity to bring an integrated solution to hyperscaler customers, providing voltage and grid connection, as well as MEP work such as interior mechanical and civil offerings. As the company continues to integrate past M&A such as Cupertino, Dynamic Systems, and Tri-City, PWR noted the opportunity to expand offerings organically, as they continue to see labor and project growth with the hyperscaler customer base. Management sees a large portion of hyperscalers connecting to the grid over the long-term, but noted the company's ability to leverage their integrated solution based model to aid in the build out of Behind-the-Meter power solutions for customers in the near-term with BTM deployments.

Point 2. Remain constructive on Electric business from strong demand and addition of large projects

We remain constructive on PWR's Electric business as we see the addition of large projects such as 765 kV and 500 kV lines contributing to out-sized growth over the long-term. Management noted the expectation for many 765 kV lines to not begin construction until the back half of 2027, as noted on previous earnings calls, as many of the projects are currently undergoing permitting discussions. With the recent approval of multiple 765 kV lines in Texas, PWR continues to see permitting discussions as remaining constructive on large transmission lines, as the projects aim to support the repair and rebuild of the grid. We continue to see out-year growth driven by the addition of these large projects into backlog, as PWR remains a key player in the build-out of high voltage transmission lines. PWR noted demand for smaller transmission and distribution projects remains robust, and sees the ability for continued growth from the inclusion of these large projects over the long-term.

Point 3. Offsite manufacturing and pre-fabrication work could support long-term margin expansion

PWR discussed key opportunities associated with the expansion of its offsite manufacturing capabilities and pre-fabrication offerings. In particular, the ability to manufacture the equipment and projects offsite before bringing the items to the field enables PWR to realize more scope on projects and drive margins higher as the company has the ability to manage costs more effectively. Management also sees a slightly better risk profile on offsite manufacturing as the process occurs in a controlled environment unlike traditional field construction. With PWR increasing their scope on projects on both the utility and hyperscaler sides of the business, we anticipate offsite manufacturing to aid in margin expansion over time due to the ability to build multiple parts of a project together in a controlled location.

Valuation and Key Risks

Valuation. Our 12-month price target is $902, which reflects our target 30.0x NTM EV/EBITDA multiple. We are Buy-rated on PWR.

Key Risks: 1) slower revenue CAGR across segments from loss in project volume momentum, 2) delays in project deliverables from supply chain related challenges, and 3) slower margin progression across the three segments from cost inflation or other operational challenges.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DAFCF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
