More benign setup into C3Q26, though price/cost a key watch item: GEV, HON, ITT, JCI, NVT & PH well positioned

More benign setup into C3Q26 EPS though price/cost a key watch item: GEV, HON, ITT, JCI, NVT and PH well positioned. C2Q26 earnings were exceptional. Orders accelerated (median order growth: +17%) for the vast majority of our Multis coverage, and many companies, like CGNX and NVT, saw large earnings revisions. Yet, the average Multi is -7% QTD (vs. S&P: +3%) owing to a rotation out of Cyclical, mid-term election choppiness and the peak AI/DC debate. This under-performance is more pronounced this year than in prior mid-term election years, where the XLI has underperformed the S&P by 140bps in August/September, on average, over the previous 7 cycles. In our opinion, this creates a more benign setup into C3Q26 EPS with a potential relief rally in October. We favor GEV, HON, ITT, JCI, NVT and PH into the C3Q26 earnings releases. Separately, in September, our investor conversations centered around four key themes that we expect to be topical throughout earnings:

(1) Is the short cycle trade over? After contracting for 36 out of 38 months, the ISM has now been > 50 for 8 straight months. While the ISM took a step back last month (54.6 vs. 55.6 in July) and regional PMIs have been weaker, we believe the cycle has just started to accelerate given the wave of mega project investment we experienced the last few years (LINK) and the fact that ISM expansion cycles typically last 14 months, on average. Our preferred way to invest in this theme is PH.

(2) How to position in the AI/DC complex? In our view, the best risk/reward across our AI/DC coverage is FPS given the FY27 guide is in the rear-view, the company's lead time advantage for MV transformers/switchgear should translate into robust backlog growth and the private equity overhang is almost resolved. We also like GEV and NVT as we expect the positive earnings revisions to continue.

(3) What to do in HVAC? While it is a consensus view, Applied HVAC appears better positioned to outperform Resi HVAC into year-end as the narrative on Resi HVAC pricing pressure has intensified (LII has the most Resi HVAC exposure) and CARR is experiencing margin pressure from its DC ramp. JCI remains our favorite HVAC OEM as we see material upside potential to FY27 EPS estimate. Our above consensus FY27E EPS embeds +11% organic growth and 35% incremental margins, both of which will likely prove conservative.

(4) Who is most exposed to price/cost pressure? Outside of Resi HVAC, we see greater near-term price/cost risk for companies with high OEM exposure. While we remain Buy rated on RRX, we see some potential for near-term margin pressure given the typical lag between input cost inflation and negotiated price increases. We see similar exposure at Neutral-rated TKR, as well as companies such as DOV that have highlighted inflationary headwinds.

In this note, we have also tweaked select estimates in our coverage to reflect 10-K/Q updates, closed M&A and public commentary at recent industry conferences.

Key stocks we are highlighting into the quarter.

- GEV (Buy, $1,224 PT). We expect another strong print for GEV after a record order quarter in Q2. With GEV expecting gas turbine output of ~5GW per quarter in 2H26 and a clear path to 125GW in backlog +SRAs by year-end (implying 10+GW in 3Q orders+SRAs), we expect robust Power organic growth in 2H (>25%) with incremental margins of ~40%. Management is tracking ahead of expectations on their $200bn backlog target for 2027, and we believe the Investor Day early next year will act as a positive catalyst for the stock with incremental color on 2030+.
- HON (Buy, $271 PT). We expect HON to continue to beat and raise in 2H26, supported by improving organic growth, healthy order momentum and continued self-help. Short-cycle orders were +HSD through the first 2.5 months of 3Q, while PA&T backlog was up ~25% y/y at the latest update and at a record high, supporting HON's expectation for PA&T growth to accelerate to +HSD in 2H. We also see further upside potential from IA, where prior share losses are stabilizing and stranded-cost removal is tracking ahead of plan, supporting a stronger earnings setup into 2027.
- ITT (Buy, $271 PT). We expect ITT to post a stronger than expected quarter (GS 2Q EPS : $2.14 vs cons $2.08) and believe the FY26 guide is conservative (GS FY26 EPS: $8.30) as the accretion from SPX Flow continues to be . We also believe there is upside to CCT growth given a strong 1H (+17.4%) and recent order trends. Lastly, the CFO search remains in focus, with management expecting to have a new CFO in place by year-end
- JCI (Buy, $191 PT). JCI is our favorite HVAC idea given strong order growth that is solidly above 30%, on average, over the last 3 quarters, backlog that will increase by ~$7bn this year or ~50%, and a large self-help opportunity. The focus this quarter will be their FY27 EPS guide, which we believe will be stronger than expected (GS: $6.50 vs consensus: $6.09) and act as a positive catalyst for the stock. We believe FY27 organic revenue growth could accelerate into the LDD-MT% range, significantly outperforming management's longer-term HSD% framework and current consensus expectations, while operating leverage remains above the 30%+ framework as well (GS expects 35%+ in the FY27 guide).
- NVT (Buy, $192 PT). We expect NVT to continue to beat and raise in 2H26 as organic growth should remain strong despite more difficult comps. Current guidance embeds decelerating growth after >40% organic growth in 1H26, but order momentum remains strong and the new Blaine facility is effectively sold out through year-end. We think organic growth will remain >40% in 3Q (GS: +42% vs consensus: +35%) and 4Q EPS guidance will come in ahead (GSe: $1.27 vs. cons. $1.22). Despite the tough 3Q order comp (3Q25 orders were +65%), we believe orders could be positive y/y and backlog could grow q/q in 3Q26.

- PH (Buy, $1,165 PT). We expect another beat and raise this quarter, driven largely by stronger Industrial growth as well as Aero margins. With the close of the Filtration Group acquisition, the raise in FY27 guide will be in focus (GS FY27 EPS: $35.75 vs FS: $35.25) as well as Circor providing natural upside to this, with management continuing to anticipate a 2H26 close. We expect momentum in their Industrial short cycle business to sustain though perhaps not as robust as F4Q26 levels (NA: +16%, Int'l: +24%).

Estimate revisions

We make the following changes to our estimates below.

- ATS. We tweak our margin estimates and also bake in some of the repeatable adjustments into our model. We lower our FY27/FY28/FY29 EPS to CAD$1.65/$2.00/$2.25 (from CAD$1.85/$2.10/$2.35).
- CARR. We raised our growth expectations for CSA but lower margins given continued inefficiencies with the DC ramp. We lower our FY26/FY27/FY28 EPS to $2.85/$3.20/$3.60 (from $2.90/$3.35/$3.80) to reflect lower CSA margins.

- CGNX. We update estimates for better organic growth in FY26 and FY27. Our FY26 EPS estimate remains unchanged at $1.70 while our FY27/FY28 EPS estimates move to $2.05/$2.35 (from $1.95/$2.20).
- DOV. We make modest revisions to our 2H estimates, to reflect flat sequential DCST margins in 3Q26 vs 2Q26. Overall, we maintain our FY26/FY27/FY28 EPS of $10.70/$11.80/$12.80.
- FLS. We lower our 2H26 margin forecasts to reflect a modest headwind in the Middle East. Our 3Q26/FY26/FY27/FY28 EPS estimates move to $0.97/$4.10/$4.55/$5.00 (from $0.98/$4.15/$4.60/$5.05).
- FPS. We update our model to reflect a slightly slower growth ramp. As a result, our FY27/FY28/FY29 EBITDA estimates move to $615mn/$890mn/$1,245mn (from $635mn/$920mn/$1,285mn).
- GEV. We make minor adjustments to our model and leave our FY26/FY27/FY28E EBITDA unchanged at $6,430mn/$10,340mn/$13,650mn.
- HON. We raise our 2H26 growth outlook to reflect a more optimistic end-market backdrop, and lower our 2H26 margin expectations on heavier project mix in PA&T and dilution from the Johnson Matthey Catalyst Technologies acquisition. GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Quantum

Quantum is Goldman Sachs' proprietary database providing access to detailed financial statement histories, forecasts and ratios. It can be used for in-depth analysis of a single company, or to make comparisons between companies in different sectors and markets.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
