Entegris Inc (ENTG.O)

Sep-Q + Investor Day Preview

CITI'S TAKE

ENTG will report Q3 earnings before the market opens on 10/29 and will host its Investor Day on 11/9 in NYC. We model Sep-Q rev/EPS largely inline with consensus, and Dec-Q modestly above (Figure 1). We believe key investors' focus this quarter will be on MSI acceleration next year and gross margin progress. We are constructive going into Investor Day, where we expect the company to articulate a new Entegris under the new management, refined strategic priorities and outperformance, alongside an updated financial target model (see our expectations in Figure 5). We introduce CY2028 estimates in our model and update our target price to $195 based on 28x 3-year average P/E applied to CY28 EPS discounted back. Maintain Buy.

Investor Day Preview — We believe investors' focus is on: 1) The new Entegris under CEO David Reeder and CFO Sukhi Nagesh, highlighting management's strategy to drive cross-portfolio synergies, improve execution, optimize R&D investment, and enhance shareholder returns through a disciplined capital allocation approach; 2) sustained market outperformance, where we expect management to reiterate its 3-6pt growth premium driven by rising content per wafer as advanced logic and 3D NAND nodes scale; and 3) an updated long-term model, including a path from ~48% gross margin today to >50% structurally, supported by manufacturing consolidation, procurement savings, productivity gains, and improving utilization. See more detailed analysis inside the note.

TP to $195 — We expect ENTG CY27/28 revenue to grow 15% Y/Y, with gross margin improving to 50% and 52%, respectively. We raise our target price to $195 from $170 prior using 3-year average 28x P/E applied to CY28 EPS discounted back.

Investor Day Preview

ENTG will host its Investor Day on 11/9 in NYC. We believe the key areas of focus are: 1) a new Entegris under the new management team; 2) ENTG portfolio and outperformance target; and 3) updated target model.

A new ENTG under new management — We expect the Investor Day to detail how CEO David Reeder and CFO Sukhi Nagesh plan to capture more value from ENTG's acquisition-built portfolio. Since becoming CEO in August 2025, Reeder has consolidated sales into an enterprise team and introduced account plans for the top 30 customers, representing ~75% of revenue, to identify cross-portfolio opportunities previously missed within individual business units. He has also centralized R&D prioritization, evaluating projects across the company against customer roadmaps and expected returns, while retaining technical capabilities within the divisions. The broader operating and supply chain team is working to improve execution across the manufacturing network. Supported by R&D investment in consumable products, we see a path for higher mix of unit-driven business overtime, which should make ENTG's revenue more stable through the cycle. We expect Sukhi Nagesh, who joined as CFO in May 2026, to outline a capital allocation framework centered on near-term deleveraging, followed by greater flexibility for targeted M&A, buybacks, and dividends.

Outperformance should continue - Entegris previously expected 3-6pts of market outperformance based on higher content and share gain opportunity, and we expect the company to keep the same range of outperformance target. Per ENTG, in Logic, materials spend per wafer increases to 1.6x from 14nm to 5nm, and further to 2.4x in 1.4nm; and in 3D NAND, material spend per wafer increases from 1.0x to 1.6x when upgrading from 32L to 176L and further to 3.0x at 500 layers and above. Our analysis shows that TSMC node transition and NAND upgrades alone can drive 2-5pts of outperformance in the next few years, with additional upside from Intel, Samsung, and other emerging foundries' progress in advanced nodes.

Updated target model – Gross margin has been a key focus for Entegris, and we expect Investor Day to provide a quantified path from the ~48% gross margin guided for Q3 toward management's view that the portfolio can structurally support more than 50% over time. Management previously has identified four operating levers: consolidating the manufacturing network, centralizing procurement, improving yields, and increasing productivity across facilities. Our prior analysis has shown that every $50 (or roughly 5%) increase in revenue/sq ft can lead to 40bps GM expansion. While there are opportunities for GM to improve in both segments, we see a greater opportunity in Materials Solutions, where ENTG's GM sits in the middle of the peer group, and we expect the company to narrow/close the ~500bps gap with its closest peer Qnity. As a result, with ongoing self-help initiatives, a robust capex and WFE cycle followed by sustainable MSI growth, and easing headwinds from the KSP and Colorado fabs, we see a path for gross margin to approach mid-50%s by the end of the decade.

BULL Assumptions

- Strong unit-driven growth and stability in the capex-driven market coupled with SAM expansion
- Faster-than-expected GM improvement
- Valuation = 35x P/E

BASE Assumptions

- Our base case assumes that ENTG will benefit from SAM expansion and higher consumable spend
- Valuation = 28x P/E

BEAR Assumptions

- Failure to capitalize on SAM expansion; a decrease in semiconductor demand due to macro effects or an inventory correction leads to fewer wafer starts
- China localization replacement risks
- Valuation = ~18x P/E

Entegris Inc

Company description

Entegris is the leading provider of purification and electronic material solutions to the global semiconductor and related industries. Entegris sales are 75% units-driven and 25% capex. The company's global customer base includes chipmakers as well as equipment OEMs. The company is headquartered in Billerica, Massachusetts and has manufacturing sites in nine countries across North America, Europe, and Asia.

Investment strategy

We are Buy-rated on ENTG. We view Entegris as having the best competitive moats in the semiconductor materials space, as well as a better setup in 2026.

Valuation

Our target price of $195 is based on 28x forward P/E applied to our CY28E EPS discounted back. The 28x P/E is consistent with the three-year average.

Risks

Risk factors include:

1) ENTG derives the majority of its revenue from the highly cyclical semiconductor industry, and has exposure to other volatile markets such as flat panel display. Any unexpected drop in semiconductor demand or delays/cancellations in new fab projects or expansions could significantly lower demand for ENTG's products.

2) As wafer starts, fab utilization, and, to a lesser extent, equipment are closely linked to the stock price, any material differences to our supply/demand model may cause our valuation methodology to be inaccurate (up or down).

Should the impact on the company from the risks outlined above be less/greater than we anticipate, the shares could exceed/fall below our target price.

Investment Ratings: Citi Research investment ratings are Buy, Neutral and Sell. Our ratings are a function of analyst expectations of expected total return ("ETR") and risk. ETR is the sum of the forecast price appreciation (or depreciation) plus the dividend yield for a stock within the next 12 months. The target price is based on a 12 month time horizon. The Investment rating definitions are: Buy (1) ETR of 15% or more or 25% or more for High risk stocks; and Sell (3) for negative ETR. Any covered stock not assigned a Buy or a Sell is a Neutral (2). For stocks rated Neutral (2), if an analyst believes that there are insufficient valuation drivers and/or investment catalysts to derive a positive or negative investment view, they may elect with the approval of Citi Research management not to assign a target price and, thus, not derive an ETR. Citi Research may suspend its rating and target price and assign "Rating Suspended" status for regulatory and/or internal policy reasons. Citi Research may also suspend its rating and target price and assign "Under Review" status for other exceptional circumstances (e.g. lack of information critical to the analyst's thesis, trading suspension) affecting the company and/or trading in the company's securities. In both such situations, the rating and target price will show as "—" and "-" respectively in the rating history price chart. Prior to 11 April 2022 Citi Research assigned "Under Review" status to both situations and prior to 11 Nov 2020 only in exceptional circumstances. As soon as practically possible, the analyst will publish a note re-establishing a rating and investment thesis. Investment ratings are determined by the ranges described above at the time of initiation of coverage, a change in investment and/or risk rating, or a change in target price (subject to limited management discretion). At times, the expected total returns may fall outside of these ranges because of market price movements and/or other short-term volatility or trading patterns. Such interim deviations will be permitted but will become subject to review by Research Management. Your decision to buy or sell a security should be based upon your personal investment objectives and should be made only after evaluating the stock's expected performance and risk.

Catalyst Watch/Short Term Views ("STV") Ratings Disclosure:
Catalyst Watch and STV Upside/Downside calls: Citi Research may also include a Catalyst Watch or STV Upside or Downside call to indicate the analyst expects the share price to rise (fall) in absolute terms over a specified period of 30 or 90 days in reaction to one or more specific near-term catalysts or events impacting the company or the market. A Catalyst Watch will be published when Analyst confidence is high that an impact to share price will occur; it will be a STV when confidence level is moderate. A Catalyst Watch or STV Upside/Downside call will automatically expire at the end of the specified 30/90 day period. The Catalyst Watch will also be automatically removed if share price performance (calculated at market close) exceeds 15% against the direction of the call (unless over-ridden by the analyst). The analyst may also remove a Catalyst Watch or STV call prior to the end of the specified period in a published research note. A Catalyst Watch/STV Upside or Downside call may be different from and does not affect a stock's fundamental equity rating, which reflects a longer-term total absolute return expectation. For purposes of FINRA ratings-distribution-disclosure rules, a Catalyst Watch/STV Upside call corresponds to a buy recommendation and a Catalyst Watch/STV Downside call corresponds to a sell recommendation. Any stock not assigned to a Catalyst Watch Upside, Catalyst Watch Downside, STV Upside, or STV Downside call is considered Catalyst Watch/STV No View. For purposes of FINRA ratings distribution-disclosure rules, we correspond Catalyst Watch/STV No View to Hold in our ratings distribution table for our Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside rating system. However, we reiterate that we do not consider No View to be a recommendation. For all Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside calls, risk exists that the catalyst(s) and associated share-price movement will not materialize as expected.

Citi Research broadly and simultaneously disseminates its research content to the Firm’s institutional and retail clients via the Firm’s proprietary electronic distribution platforms (e.g., Citi Velocity and various Global Wealth platforms). As a convenience, certain, but not all, research content may be distributed through third party aggregators. Clients may receive published research reports by email, on a discretionary basis, and only after such research content has been broadly disseminated. Certain research is made available only to institutional investors to satisfy regulatory requirements. The level and types of services provided by Citi Research analysts to clients may vary depending on various factors such as the client’s individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communications from analysts, the client’s risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g. market-wide, sector specific, long term, short-term etc.), the size and scope of the overall client relationship with the Firm and legal and regulatory constraints.

The Product is for informational purposes only and is not intended as an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of a security. Any decision to purchase securities mentioned in the Product must take into account existing public information on such security or any registered prospectus. Although information has been obtained from and is based upon sources that the Firm believes to be reliable, we do not guarantee its accuracy and it may be incomplete and condensed. Note, however, that the Firm has taken all reasonable steps to determine the accuracy and completeness of the disclosures made in the Important Disclosures section of the Product. The Firm's research department has received assistance from the subject company(ies) referred to in this Product including, but not limited to, discussions with management of the subject company(ies). Firm policy prohibits research analysts from sending draft research to subject companies. However, it should be presumed that the author of the Product has had discussions with the subject company to ensure factual accuracy prior to publication. Statements and views concerning ESG (environmental, social, governance) factors are typically based upon public statements made by the affected company or other public news, which the author may not have independently verified. ESG factors are one consideration that investors may choose to examine when making investment decisions. All opinions, projections and estimates constitute the judgment of the author as of the date of the Product and these, plus any other information contained in the Product, are subject to change without notice. Prices and availability of financial instruments also are subject to change without notice. Notwithstanding other departments within the Firm advising the companies discussed in this Product, information obtained in such role is not used in the preparation of the Product. Although Citi Research does not set a predetermined frequency for publication, if the Product is a fundamental equity or credit research report, it is the intention of Citi Research to provide research coverage of the covered issuers, including in response to news affecting the issuer. For non-fundamental research reports, Citi Research may not provide regular updates to the views, recommendations and facts included in the reports. Notwithstanding that Citi Research maintains coverage on, makes recommendations concerning or discusses issuers, Citi Research may be periodically restricted from referencing certain issuers due to legal or policy reasons. Where a component of a published trade idea is subject to a restriction, the trade idea will be removed from any list of open trade ideas included in the Product. Upon the lifting of the restriction, the trade idea will either be re-instated in the open trade ideas list if the analyst continues to support it or it will be officially closed. Citi Research may provide different research products and services to different classes of customers (for example, based upon long-term or short-term investment horizons) that may lead to differing conclusions or recommendations that could impact the price of a security contrary to the recommendations in the alternative research product, provided that each is consistent with the rating system for each respective product.

Investing in non-U.S. securities, including ADRs, may entail certain risks. The securities of non-U.S. issuers may not be registered with, nor be subject to the reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. There may be limited information available on foreign securities. Foreign companies are generally not subject to uniform audit and reporting standards, practices and requirements comparable to those in the U.S. Securities of some foreign companies may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable U.S. companies. In addition, exchange rate movements may have an adverse effect on the value of an investment in a foreign stock and its corresponding dividend payment for U.S. investors. Net dividends to ADR investors are estimated, using withholding tax rates conventions, deemed accurate, but investors are urged to consult their tax advisor for exact dividend computations. Investors who have received the Product from the Firm may be prohibited in certain states or other jurisdictions from purchasing securities mentioned in the Product from the Firm.
