Investment Banking Monitor: Announced July activity fell, as strategic/large-cap M&A and DCM moderated

July announced investment banking (IBanking) activity was muted, falling 11% YoY, driven by weaker M&A and DCM YoY, while ECM rose. Announced monthly M&A volumes were down 9%/38% YoY/MoM, DCM volumes fell 17%/36% YoY/MoM, while ECM volumes changed by +82%/-49% YoY/MoM.

YTD investment banking volumes are now up 20% YoY at end-July (+39%/80%/10% across M&A/ECM/DCM), 5pp lower vs. end-June (+50%/+80%/+15% across M&A/ECM/DCM). YTD M&A announcements are up 39% YoY, with growth mostly driven by large-cap, strategics, Europe, and the US. We remain optimistic on the IBanking cycle continuing, based on our proprietary leading indicator model. We forecast 19% next twelve months (NTM) industry M&A growth, unchanged vs. last month. July leading indicators were modestly stronger in Europe and largely unchanged in the US and Asia.

We see three IBanking trends going forward: 1) we are at the midpoint of the M&A cycle, but we believe that there are several years of growth left; 2) we are incrementally positive on a sponsor and mid-cap M&A inflection off of a low base, driven by structural tailwinds, whereas the second derivative of large-cap & strategic M&A could turn negative; and 3) we anticipate continued ECM strength, driven by strong AI-related financing and large-cap volumes. YTD large-cap/strategic M&A has been strong, up 79%/56% YoY, vs. small + mid-cap/sponsor +22%/7%, with the average M&A transaction size up 29% YoY. On the ECM front, July volumes were up 82% YoY, driven by Follow-on/IPO volumes up 107%/86% YoY.

Given our shifting views on growth areas within M&A, we prefer firms that can benefit from a mid-cap & sponsor acceleration, specifically Buy-rated LCLN and PIPR, and those that offer structural growth, and can benefit from continued non-M&A growth, specifically Buy-rated EVR and PJT.

We set out detailed monthly product-level trends within.

- July announced M&A volumes decreased 9% YoY and 38% MoM, after a flat MoM trend last month (+75% YoY); they remain 30% above median July levels over the past decade. We are beginning to see a gradual recovery in sponsors (+33% YoY) and in the mid-cap space (+44% YoY), while large-cap (-70% YoY) and strategics (-24% YoY) were weaker. There was a divergence in performance, as Europe (+31%) and China (+8% YoY) rose, whereas activity in the US and the Rest of World (ex China - RoW) declined (-23%/-27% YoY). YTD announced volumes are now up 39% YoY (vs. +50% last month), driven by strategic strength and growth across deal sizes, with 56% higher strategics, 79%/28%/13% higher large/mid/small-cap, and 85%/57% stronger European/US activity, although 37% lower Chinese volumes. YTD sponsor M&A volumes are now up 7% YoY, accounting for 26% of total volumes, -10pp vs. 2025 and -6pp below the 10-year average. On a sector basis, announced Industrials and Utilities volumes decreased most YoY (-53%/-20%), while we saw a 213% YoY increase in Telecom. Completed M&A volumes in July declined 16% YoY, vs. +44% YoY last month, with YTD completed M&A volumes now +38% YoY. Using our leading indicator-based model, we expect 19% industry NTM YoY M&A growth (unchanged vs. the prior month), on stronger leading indicators in Europe, and largely unchanged indicators in the US and Asia.
- ECM volumes rose 82% YoY, but fell by 49% MoM (vs. +166%/138% YoY/MoM last month): We saw notably higher YoY volumes across China (+348%) the RoW (+100%), mid-cap (+53%) and large-cap ($27bn in July 2026, vs. $0bn in July 2025). Activity increased most in Follow-ons and IPOs (+107%/+86% YoY), while Europe and Convertibles volumes fell (-27%/-15% YoY). YTD volumes are up 80% YoY (in-line vs. last month), on 219% YoY growth in IPOs, 82% higher Convertibles, 918% higher large-cap activity, and a 127%/90% increase in the US /China activity. Energy and Telecom saw the largest July YoY volume increases (+1912%/+863%), while Utilities and Financial Services activity declined most (-74%/-33% YoY).

- DCM volumes declined 17%/36% YoY/MoM (vs. +17%/+9% YoY/MoM last month): DCM notably declined YoY across HY (-52%), lev. loans (-51%), small-cap (-21%), mid-cap (-19%), and the US (-29%), partially offset by increases in large-cap (+34%), IG (+21%) and China (+31%). Consumer Cyclicals (-57%) and Energy (-57%) saw the largest YoY decreases this month, while Utilities (+15%) was the only sector that increased YoY. YTD volumes remain positive, up 10% YoY (vs. +14% prior month), with growth across most products and regions.

Mergers & acquisitions (M&A)

Our proprietary top-down model suggests NTM global M&A volumes could grow 19% YoY, in-line with last month, given stronger leading indicators, specifically in Europe, with largely unchanged indicators in the US and Asia (Exhibit 8).

Announced volumes declined 9%/38% YoY/MoM in July, vs. +75%/0% YoY/MoM growth in June (Exhibit 10). We saw YoY declines in large-cap (-70%), RoW (-27%), the US (-23%), and strategics (-24%), partially offset by increases in sponsors (+33%) and Europe (+31%). YTD announced volumes are now 39% higher YoY (vs. +50% last month), on higher volumes across deal sizes, with 79%/28% increases in large and mid-cap deals, 85%/57% stronger European/US activity, and 56% strategic growth, partially offset by 37% lower China dealmaking. July completed deal volumes declined 16% YoY (vs. +44% last month), and were down 29% MoM (Exhibit 16), driven by weaker trends across most deal sizes and regions, with 52%/34% declines in China/RoW, 24% weaker strategics, and 21%/18% weaker small/mid-cap. Only Europe/sponsor activity increased in the month (+4%/+2% YoY). YTD completed volumes are now up 38% YoY (16pp lower vs. end-June), driven by 46%/35% higher sponsors/strategics.

Announced volumes were down across most sectors in July (Exhibit 20). Announced Industrials and Utilities volumes decreased most YoY (-53%/-20%), while Telecom increased the most at +213% YoY. Completed M&A volumes decreased most in Energy/Consumer Staples YoY (-82%/-59%), while Utilities saw the largest YoY increase (+66%). Technology and Utilities took most YoY share of announced deal volumes YTD, vs. 2025 (+4pp/+3pp), while Telecom and Financial Services lost most share (-3pp each).

Cross-border volumes increased 7% YoY in July (+1% MoM - Exhibit 25) and accounted for 35% of global M&A, up 13pp MoM. Cross-border deal activity shifted from US to RoW, Europe and China, with their contribution to global cross-border M&A in July increasing to 26%/55%/2% (vs. 8%/50%/0% last month).

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Quantum

Quantum is Goldman Sachs' proprietary database providing access to detailed financial statement histories, forecasts and ratios. It can be used for in-depth analysis of a single company, or to make comparisons between companies in different sectors and markets.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances.

Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
