We preview 3-month revenues for 8 companies under our coverage in the AI server/PC supply chain, and update our estimates for Asus, Compal, Inventec and Pegatron. Across the supply chain, we are positive on: (1) Apple's supply chain on the back of a ramp-up of new models with form factor changes (i.e. foldable phones in 2026, and the iPhone 20 in 2027) to support end demand; (2) AI server components to ride on specification upgrades; and (3) ASIC AI servers' rising penetration rate. Buy: Hon Hai, Wiwynn, Wistron; Neutral: Quanta, Inventec, Compal, ASUS; Sell: Pegatron.

On a MoM basis, we expect the average revenue growth of the 8 companies to come in at -2%/ 0%/ 1% in Oct / Nov/ Dec 2026 (Exhibit 1). We expect largely unchanged revenue in the coming months, mainly on the AI server model transition and the modest consumer electronic products demand under high memory costs and consumption pull-in.

On a YoY basis, we expect the average revenue growth of the 8 companies to come in at +68%/ +60%/ +44% in Oct / Nov / Dec 2026 (Exhibit 2), driven by the continuous ramp-up of AI servers, along with a PC product mix upgrade, new smartphone models, and high memory costs driving up the selling price.

Hon Hai (2317.TW; Buy, on CL): New AI server racks and Foldable phones to drive 4Q26E

We expect Hon Hai's monthly revenues to continue sequential growth through Dec 2026, leading 4Q26 revenues to grow at +39% QoQ, driven by: (1) AI data center: The next-generation AI server racks and CPO switches ramp-up, with higher ASP and early delivery. We expect Hon Hai to be the first to deliver the latest model, around 2-3 months ahead of peers, driving its Oct and onward revenue growth. Followed by GPU-powered AI server racks, the LPU-powered AI server racks should fuel the growth in Dec and onward, supporting the YoY increase in 1Q27. As our Global Server TAM update shows, we expect the AI server rack global value TAM to grow at 163% CAGR in 2025-28E to US$1tn, or 63% of the global server value TAM by 2028E. And (2) Smartphone: riding on the major brand customer's latest model launches along with the new form factor to attract more end users. As we highlighted in September (report link), we reduced our global smartphone volume estimates by 1m/ 8m/ 0.2m units to 1.1bn / 1.2bn/ 1.2bn in 2026-28E, or -10% / +2%/ +2% YoY on high memory costs; however, we remain positive on the potential for global leading brands to outperform the market given their strong brand awareness, large procurement power, and customers' stronger consumption power. We remain positive on foldable phones and expect premium models to continue to gain market share, which should be positive to Hon Hai. Maintain Buy (on CL).

Exhibit 5: Hon Hai's Sep revenues +38% YoY, or +26% MoM
YoY revenue growth

Source: Company data

3-month revenues preview: We expect the company's 4Q26E revenues to be +61% YoY/ +39% QoQ to NT$4.2 trillion. 3Q26 delivered strong revenues YoY growth of 47%, or 5% / 7% ahead of our / Bloomberg consensus, and we expect to see both YoY and MoM growth throughout Oct-Dec, driven by new AI server racks, new smartphone models, and CPO switches. Management noted that AI-related products remain on track to maintain solid growth momentum through 4Q26, while ICT products continue to benefit from typical 2H seasonal tailwinds, which should support overall operational performance in line with current consensus expectations.

Price Target Risks and Methodology – Hon Hai

Valuation methodology: We are Buy rated on Hon Hai. Our 12-month target price of NT$400 is based on an 17.9x 2027E P/E multiple, which is set in line with peers' PEG&M ratio (i.e., P/E vs. forward-year earnings growth and OPM).

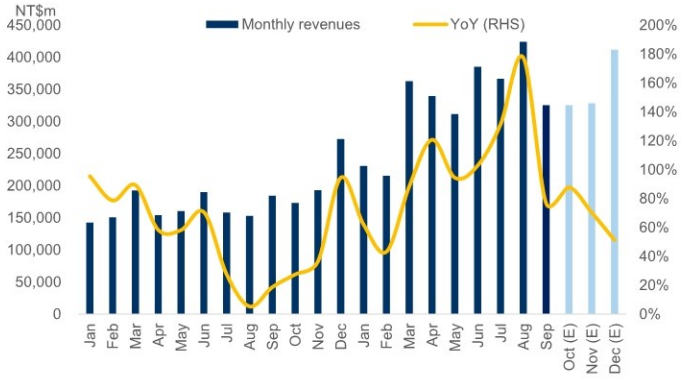

Key downside risks: (1) slower-than-expected ramp-up of the AI server business; (2) weaker-than-expected EV total solution performance across EV assembly, design, software, and semis; (3) slower-than-expected ramp-up of capacity globally; and (4) fiercer-than-expected competition in the consumer electronics EMS business.

Quanta (2382.TW, Neutral): AI servers ramp-up to drive growth ahead; model transition and PC shipment slowdown could weigh on 4Q26

Quanta Sep revenues declined by 23% MoM, which we attributed to AI servers model transition, while PC entered quarter-end at a strong MoM of +62% MoM. Looking forward, we expect monthly revenues to resume sequential growth in Oct to Dec, riding on a reducing impact of AI servers model transition as new racks ramp up, along with growing general servers on agentic AI, and ASP increase on better specification and high raw material costs. We expect 4Q26E revenues to decline by 4% QoQ, considering the high base in 3Q26 and the gradual ramp-up of new AI server racks. As we highlighted in Oct (Global Server TAM updates), we expect global AI server racks (powered by NVIDIA and AMD) shipment at 63k / 110k / 164k in 2026E-28E along with the specification upgrade to drive the ASP; we raised leading US CSPs aggregate capex by 4% / 17% / 22% in 2026E-28E to US$1,397bn by 2028E, reflecting our positive view on AI spending.

Maintain Neutral on fair valuation.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Quanta

We are Neutral rated on Quanta. Our 12-month target price of NT$300 is based on a 10.7x 2027E P/E, which references PC/server peers' EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth as a major factor for the stock's performance. Key upside/downside risks include: 1) stronger-/weaker-than-expected PC market recovery; 2) faster-/slower-than-expected AI server ramp-up; and 3) stronger-/weaker-than-expected demand for general servers.

Wiwynn (6669.TW, Buy): New ASIC and GPU AI server racks in expansion

Wiwynn delivered strong Sep revenues, which were 19% ahead of our estimates, reflecting strong general server demand from US leading CSPs, and its major customers' new ASIC AI server ramping up. We expect revenue YoY growth to remain strong at mid double-digit through Dec 2026, leading 4Q26 revenues to grow at +60 YoY / +8% QoQ, driven by (1) major customers' new ASIC AI servers ramping up, across air-cooled and liquid-cooled, (2) general servers end demand remaining solid on agentic AI, (3) new GPU-powered AI server racks entering mass production in 4Q26 across NVIDIA and AMD platforms, and (4) potential new customers in ASIC AI servers. As we highlighted in Oct (Global Server TAM update), we raised AI servers implied AI chips shipment by 9% / 19% in 2027 / 28E with ASIC penetration rate increasing to 58% by 2028E, and our US internet team forecasts that leading US cloud service providers (CSPs) in aggregate will grow their capex budgets by 84%/ 52%/ 13% YoY in 2026-28E, with our US CSP capex estimates raised by 4% / 17% / 22% in 2026-28E to US$1,397bn by 2028E, supporting our positive view on Wiwynn. Maintain Buy with an unchanged 12m TP of NT$4,000

(20.3x 2027E P/E vs. +37% EPS YoY in 2027-28E).

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Wiwynn

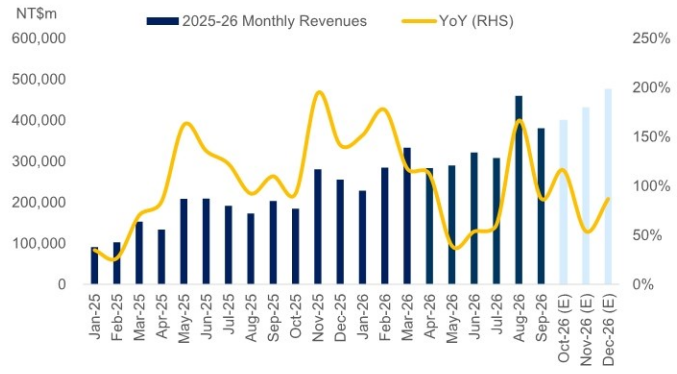

We are Buy-rated on Wiwynn with a 12-month TP of NT$4,000. Our target price is based on 20.3x 2027E P/E, which is derived from PC/server peers' EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth as a major factor for the stock's performance.

Key downside risks: 1) weaker-than-expected AI server demand growth; 2) slower-than-expected recovery in general server demand; and 3) more severe competition in the server ODM market.

Wistron (3231.TW, Buy): AI server racks to see strong ramp-up with customer expansion and specification upgrades

Wistron's Sep revenue was up 87% YoY to NT$381bn, or 18% lower than our estimate, which we attribute to the impact of shipment timing volatility in higher-ASP AI products. We expect sequential revenue growth ahead through Dec 2026, driven by new GPU AI server racks ramp-up in 4Q26, which should drive up the ASP, along with strong AI spending and expansion of the company's customer base. The new GPU AI server racks have various racks across GPU, CPU, and LPU, supporting ODM growth in coming quarters. Sep PC shipment was up 7% MoM but down 32% YoY to 1.5m units, reflecting the slow PC demand amid the consumption pull-in under the high memory cost. Despite PC shipments growth likely being negative HoH considering the strong pull-in since late 2025, we expect the strong AI server rack ramp-up to offset the impact, driving 2H26 revenue up +41% HoH. Maintain Buy with an unchanged TP of NT$291 (12.6x 2027E P/E vs. 30.4% NI YoY in 2027-28E).

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Wistron

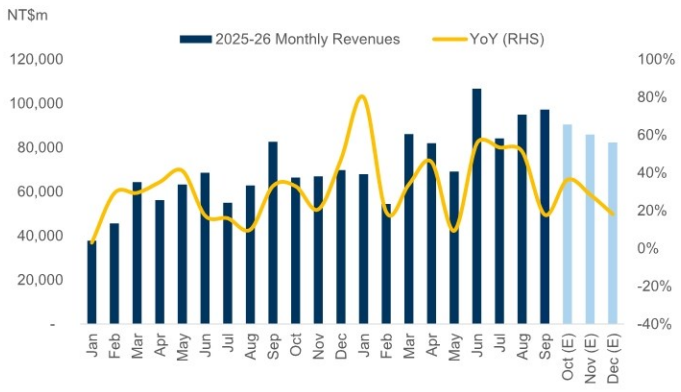

Our 12-month target price of NT$291 is based on a 12.6x 2027E P/E, which is derived from PC/server peer EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth as a major factor for the stock's share price performance.

Key downside risks: 1) weaker-than-expected PC market recovery, 2) slower-than-expected AI server demand ramp-up, and 3) weaker-than-expected demand on general servers.

ASUS (2357.TW, Neutral): AI server racks in expansion along with PC product mix upgrade

3-month revenues preview: We expect sequential revenues decline in 4Q26 at 6% qoq, considering the PC consumption pull-in under high memory costs along with AI servers model transition. We remain positive on the company's expansion toward AI servers and expect the upcoming new models carrying higher ASP to further drive its growth in late 2026 / early 2027. We continue to expect double-digit revenues YoY in 4Q26E at 27% YoY driven by PC product mix upgrade and AI server racks ramp-up. The company retains strong commitments on capacity expansion and diversification, with issuance of US$0.5bn of convertible bonds and US$1bn of exchangeable bonds, supporting the expansion. Maintain Neutral on fair valuation.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Asus

We are Neutral-rated on ASUS with a 12-month target price of NT$1,115. Our target price is based on 14.8x 2027E P/E, which is derived from brand makers' average ratio of 2027E P/E to 2028E NI YoY and OPM. We see EPS growth and OPM as major factors for the stock's share performance.

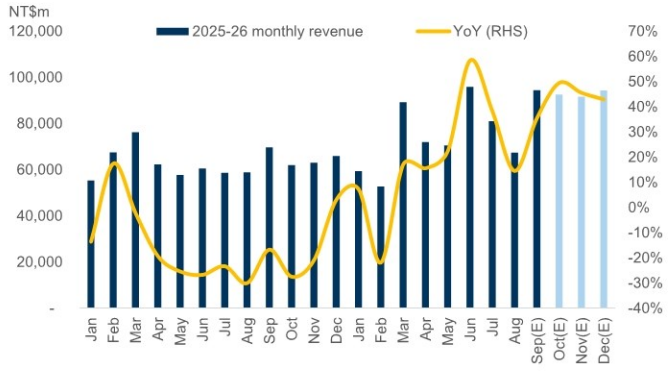

Key upside/downside risks include: 1) stronger / weaker-than-expected PC market growth; 2) faster / slower-than-expected AI and gaming PC growth; and 3) faster / slower-than-expected AI server ramp-up.

Compal (2324.TW, Neutral): AI servers to fuel 4Q26E/1Q27E growth

3-month revenues preview: We expect sequential revenues growth in 4Q26, considering the company's rising AI server shipments, AI server capacity expansion, and PC product mix upgrade towards high-end model (e.g. AI PC). Overall, we expect Compal's 4Q26E revenues to grow at 46% yoy/ 15% qoq, riding on AI server racks ramp-up and the company's expansion from motherboard (L6) to system (L10 / L11). We remain positive on Compal's business diversification, supported by global capacity expansion in the US, Taiwan, Vietnam and China, while consumer electronics still accounts for the majority of the company's total revenue, for which demand could be capped by rising raw material costs (e.g., memory, CPU). Maintain Neutral on fair valuation.

Exhibit 20: Compal monthly revenues and YoY change

Source: Company data, Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

Compal's Sep revenue was up 35% YoY / 40% MoM to NT$94bn, or 3% higher than our estimate, reflecting strong AI server racks shipment ramp-up. Sep PC shipments were up 21% MoM but down 32% YoY to 1.7m units, reflecting the sluggish demand amid the rising memory cost and weak consumer electronics demand.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Compal

We are Neutral-rated on Compal with a 12-month target price of NT$46.1. Our target price is based on 14.7x 2027E P/E, which is derived from PC/server peers' EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth and market re-rating for ODM companies as major factors for the stock's performance.

Key upside/downside risks: 1) stronger-/weaker-than-expected PC market recovery; 2) faster-/slower-than-expected AI server ramp-up; and 3) stronger/weaker-than-expected demand for tablets.

Inventec (2356.TW, Neutral): Components tight supply weighing on growth

Inventec's Sep revenue was up 63% YoY / 18% MoM, or 20% higher than our estimate, and we attribute the MoM growth to the strong AI server growth momentum. We model sequential revenue decline in Oct, considering the impact of the high base, components short supply and sluggish PC end demand post the demand pull-in in 1H26, leading our 4Q26E revenues up 47% YoY. We remain positive on Inventec's AI server business expansion, while the component short supply may weigh on the near-term growth. Maintain Neutral.

Earnings revision: We factor in Inventec's Sep revenue and raise our 2026-28E net income by 9% / 6% / 14%, mainly on higher revenues and lower opex ratio to reflect lower R&D investments. We raise our 2026-28E revenues by 2% / 3% / 9%, considering the rising AI server ASP on the rising component costs. Our 2026-28E GMs are largely unchanged.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Inventec

We are Neutral-rated on Inventec with a 12-month target price of NT$61.0. Our target price is based on 14.2x 2027E P/E, which is derived from PC/server peers' EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth as a major factor for the stock's performance.

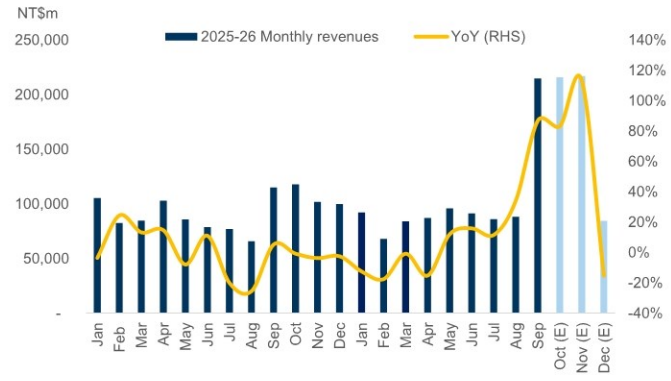

Key upside/downside risks: 1) stronger-/weaker-than-expected PC market recovery; 2) faster-/slower-than-expected AI server ramp-up; and 3) stronger-/weaker-than-expected demand for general servers.

Pegatron (4938.TW, Sell): AI servers in expansion; IoT and Broadband entering peak season

3-month revenues preview: Overall, we project Pegatron's 4Q26E revenues to grow +62% YoY, driven by: (1) a continuing ramp-up in AI server shipments, across rack-level and baseboard-based, riding on the growing demand in Neocloud and enterprises, and

(2) broadband, IoT, and game console entering peak season. We are positive on Pegatron's expansion from consumer electronics to AI servers and automotive electronics, while the high memory costs could cap PC and smartphone market growth. Maintain Sell on stretched valuation.

Exhibit 32: Pegatron monthly revenues and YoY change

Source: Company data, Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

Pegatron's Sep revenue was up 87% YoY / 143% MoM to NT$215bn, or 64% higher than our estimate. This reflects a strong ramp-up in AI servers in Sep. Sep PC shipments were up c.8% MoM but down 44% YoY to 0.46m, reflecting the weak PC demand under the high memory costs. Prior to September, the company suffered from model transition (i.e. declining demand for older models while new models were in a slow shipment ramp-up phase).

Earnings revision: We factor in Pegatron's Sep revenue and raise our 2026-28E net income by 4% / 6% / 4%, mainly on higher revenues and lower opex ratio. We raise our 2026-28E revenues by 16% / 28% / 27%, considering the AI server shipment ramp-up and higher ASP on better specification. Given the much lower GM of AI server racks compared to Pegatron's other products, our changes in gross profits narrow to 9% / 12% / 15% in 2026E-28E. The opex ratio for 2026-28E is cut by 0.1 ppt/ 0.2 ppt/ 0.1 ppt to reflect the improved operational efficiency.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Pegatron

We are Sell rated on Pegatron with a 12-month target price of NT$73.3. Our TP is based on a 9.7x 2027E P/E, which is derived from PC/server peers' EPS growth vs. P/E multiple correlation. We see EPS growth as a major factor for the stock's share performance.

Key risks: 1) stronger-than-expected smartphone market recovery, 2) faster-than-expected AI server ramp-up, and 3) stronger-than-expected demand on consumer electronics.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Quantum

Quantum is Goldman Sachs' proprietary database providing access to detailed financial statement histories, forecasts and ratios. It can be used for in-depth analysis of a single company, or to make comparisons between companies in different sectors and markets.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
