Supply constrained, not demand constrained; NAND outlook brighter

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 345.00 USD | Price: 260.81 USD

>40% YoY Systems growth; CY27 WFE >$200bn

SepQ sales/pf-EPS 1%/1% above Street and DecQ's outlook is essentially in line but would have been higher barring industry supply constraints. We highlight: (1) supply constraints not specified, but they are industry-wide issues (not LRCX-specific) and per our recent industry discussions at SEMICON West are likely related to gas delivery subsystems. We see this as a transitory issue; (2) following mid-$150bn WFE IN CY26 (+30% YoY), mgmt.'s preliminary CY27E view is >$200bn but we think this gets revised up as cleanroom availability clarifies. CY28E should be another strong year (we model >20% YoY) per peers (ASML guided to +30% YoY output growth CY28) and customer broadening (e.g. TeraFab); (2) as memory hierarchy for AI evolves, NAND gains prominence, increasing the likelihood of substantial greenfield adds in CY28E as every 2% of SLC bit-demand could require 2% incremental wafers; (3) etch/deposition intensity remains robust, and LRCX's key products (Akara, Aether) are all gaining momentum, suggesting share gains tracking well; (4) despite China declining materially in DecQ, gross margins guided flat/slightly up to 54.5%, an indication of pricing power for new products and volume tailwinds, a sustainable driver ahead. We modestly raise CY27/28E pf-EPS by 1%/1% but lower PO to $345 (25x CY28E PE) from $385 prior (29x CY28E) on broader semicap multiple de-rating. Reiterate Buy.

Likes: industry outgrowth, new memory devices, ASR

We like: (1) our modeled +48% YoY Systems growth in CY28 well above WFE (+30% YoY) on increasing etch/dep intensity and product-cycle traction in both memory and logic; (2) 4F squared DRAM and 3D DRAM are both verticalized etch/dep intensive transitions that play to LRCX's portfolio strengths ahead; (3) LRCX entered an accelerated share repurchase structure ($1bn repurchased in SepQ), continuing DecQ.

Risks: supply constraints, rising China ecosystem

We flag: (1) supply constraints in cleanroom space, peer semicap tools, and subsystems that are not in mgmt.'s control but may gate growth; (2) recent developments in China on 4F squared and semicap localization represent an overhanging long-term risk.

Company Sector

Semiconductor Capital Equipment

Company Description

Lam Research is a leading global supplier of wafer fabrication equipment (WFE) and services for semiconductor manufacturing with core competencies in deposition, etch, and clean equipment. These systems play a critical role in enabling LRCX's customers' ability to make chips smaller, faster, and more performant. LRCX's major customers include leading semi memory, foundry, and integrated device manufacturers (IDMs), such as Samsung, TSMC (Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing), and Intel.

Investment Rationale

We rate LRCX Buy. LRCX is the second largest supplier of semiconductor capital equipment with a core competency in etch, deposition, and cleaning systems. We believe LRCX unique positioning in memory compounded by a less-cyclical semicap industry overall should allow the company to continue to outgrow the industry over the next 3+ years. Near term we also see a favorable set up from stabilized pricing/ tight supply in memory and capacity constraints on the leading and lagging.

BofA GLOBAL RESEARCH

Price objective basis & risk

Lam Research Corp. (LRCX)
We assign a $345 PO based on 25x CY28E PE. Our PO basis is near the middle of the historical 9x-50x trading range justified by ongoing memory and leading-edge foundry/logic WFE cycle, high-teens EPS CAGR over time, etch/deposition product leadership, rising etch/deposition intensity, share gains, growing foundry/logic exposure over memory, improving prospects of NAND greenfield along with continued upgrade spending,, and robust FCF generation, offset by near-term concerns around cost inflation and tariffs.

Upside risks are tech inflections, F/L share gains, NAND upgrades.

Downside risks are slower than expected capital spending cycle, delay in memory capacity adds, market share loss in etch or clean segments, merger & integrations risk, macro headwinds, customer consolidation and China.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster[R2]
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

[R2] Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
