Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C.

Post market close on Aug 28, 2026, Supcon announced 2Q26 results that missed GSe. 2Q26 sales/GP/OP/NP were Rmb2,129mn/Rmb684mn/Rmb2mn/Rmb80mn (-4%/-8%/-99%/-66% yoy), -5%/-8%/-99%/-62% vs. GSe.

Implied 2Q26 GPM/OPM/NPM were 32%/0%/4% (-1pp/-7pp/-7pp yoy), -1pp/-5pp/-6pp vs. GSe. In our view, the results miss reflected continued weakness in the domestic chemicals end-market capex (1H26 sales -12% yoy excluding industrial AI against -6.5% domestic chemicals industry FAI growth) and at the same time the company is leaning toward a subscription-based model for its industrial AI initiative which is cannibalizing its one-off product sales. Industrial AI sales recorded a high of +230% yoy growth, reaching Rmb385mn in 1H26, but the qoq growth appeared slow at only +9% in 2Q26 and the contribution to total sales decreased to 9% in 2Q26 (vs. 12% in 1Q26). Management noted there are challenges in terms of long decision-making process internally, motivating sales employees, and the implementation efficiency, and they are working on reorganizing the internal sales & marketing structure and enhancing customer education. That said, management remains confident in achieving the industrial AI sales target of Rmb800mn~1,000mn in full-year 2026 (vs. our forecast of Rmb805mn). All in, we revise down our 2026E-30E net income by 11% on average to reflect the results and prolonged weakness in the domestic chemicals end-market capex spending, and we will closely monitor whether and when the industrial AI initiative will become sufficient to offset weakness in the traditional businesses. Accordingly, our 12m TP moves to Rmb42.3 (vs. Rmb44.5 previously), still based on 2030E P/E of 28x discounted back to 2027E. Maintain Sell.

Key takeaways from the results and earnings call on Aug 30 include:

- Industrial AI sales recorded a high of +230% yoy growth, reaching Rmb385mn in 1H26, but the qoq growth appeared slow at only +9% in 2Q26 and contribution to total sales decreased to 9% in 2Q26 (vs. 12% in 1Q26). Management noted there are challenges in terms of the long decision-making process internally, motivating sales employees as there is cannibalization of one-off product sales as a result of leaning towards a subscription-based model, and the implementation efficiency on the customers' side, and they are working on reorganizing the internal sales & marketing structure and enhancing customer education. That said, management remains confident in achieving its industrial AI sales target of Rmb800mn~1,000mn in full-year 2026 driven by expanding adoption of its TPT (Time-series Pre-trained Transformer) model in end-markets such as chlor-alkali and petrochemicals, vs. our forecast of Rmb805mn in 2026E. Excluding industrial AI, sales from the remaining businesses were -12% yoy in 1H26 and we will closely monitor whether and when its new industrial AI initiative will become sufficient to offset weakness in the traditional business.

- Automation control systems sales were -11% yoy (vs. -9%/-28% yoy in 1H25/2H25) although the company believes they continued to gain share in the DSC (Distributed Control Systems) market, as China's chemicals industry FAI growth continued to deteriorate at -7.4% in 1-7M26 (vs. -6.5% in 1-6M26), per NBS. Per management, new orders growth has turned positive in 2026YTD, and we expect a 26% segment sales growth in 2H26E on a very low base.
- On cost and expense, firmwide GPM decreased by 1pp in 2Q26 mainly impacted by 21pp GPM decline for the industrial software segment. 2Q26 OPEX also rose 24% yoy against the -4% yoy sales decline, lifting SG&A ratio (as % of sale) +7pp yoy.
- Receivables days (incl. accounts receivables, notes receivables, and contract assets) continued to lengthen (288 in 1H26 on an annualized basis) vs. 255/244 days in 1H25/2H25. Operating cash outflows widened to -Rmb715mn, vs. -Rmb559mn in 1H25. Going forward, it will be key to watch Supcon's credit impairment and cash conversion risks.

Earnings and TP revision: We revise down our 2026E-30E net income forecasts by 11% on average to reflect the results and prolonged weakness in the domestic chemicals end-market capex spending. Accordingly, our 12m TP moves to Rmb42.3 (vs. Rmb44.5 previously), still based on 2030E P/E of 28x discounted back to 2027E. Maintain Sell.

Investment Thesis - Zhejiang Supcon Technology Co.

Supcon is the leading Process Automation (PA) supplier in China (with the No.1 market share of 45% for Distributed Control Systems [DCS] in 2025) and competes with global peers like Emerson, Honeywell and Yokogawa and domestically with Hollysys. While we forecast a strong 2025-2030E sales CAGR for Supcon's new initiatives (led by industrial AI), we believe the growth outlook will still be modest in the next few years mainly due to the domestic chemicals capex weakness as Supcon has 55% of total sales coming from the (petro)chemicals industry in 2025. We still like Supcon's dominant market positioning in the control system space and will closely monitor the momentum of its new initiatives (e.g. industrial AI, software subscription, and robotics solutions) as well as overseas expansion progress. We view the stock's valuation as stretched on a P/E vs. long-term EPS growth perspective and are Sell rated.

Price Target Risks and Methodology - Zhejiang Supcon Technology Co.

Valuation: Our 12m TP of Rmb42.3 is based on a 28x 2030E P/E discounted back to 2027E with 10.5% CoE.

Upside risks: (1) Higher contribution from new initiatives; (2) Stronger-than-expected chemicals investment cycle; (3) Faster overseas expansion progress; (4) Faster domestic DCS market share gain.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock’s forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock’s forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock’s forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
